Extended forecast – Dry conditions and mostly sunny skies are forecast Friday through the weekend. North-northwesterly winds will be slightly breezy to start on Friday but expect these winds to gradually turn east-northeasterly and weaken through the day, eventually becoming light and variable towards the conclusion of the second round of play. Temperatures will reach highs in the low 70s on Friday and Saturday before warming into the upper 70s on Sunday. Expect cool mornings with temperatures in the upper 40s to low 50s.
