TOURNAMENT STORYLINES

Year three for 3M: This week's 3M Open at TPC Twin Cities marks the third year for the tournament that started in 2019. Defending champion Michael Thompson and 2019 winner Matthew Wolff return in an attempt to become the first two-time winner of the event. TPC Twin Cities is the ninth of 10 TPC facilities hosting PGA TOUR events during the 2020-21 season. The Arnold Palmer design was updated by Minnesota native and 1996 Open Champion Tom Lehman prior to the debut of the 3M Open in 2019. PGA TOUR golf in Minnesota dates back to 1930, played as the St. Paul Open from 1930-1956 (not played on five occasions), the St. Paul Open Invitational from 1957-65 (not played in 1959) and as the Minnesota Golf Classic from 1966-69.

Johnson returns to Minnesota: World No. 2 and reigning FedExCup champion Dustin Johnson headlines the 3M Open field. Johnson is making his second start at the event, withdrawing after a first-round 78 in 2020. Following the WD, Johnson recorded seven top-10s in his next eight starts, including wins at THE NORTHERN TRUST, the TOUR Championship and the Masters Tournament.

Thompson at TPC Twin Cities: Michael Thompson found the winner's circle on the PGA TOUR for the first time in seven years after he won the 2020 3M Open by two shots over Adam Long. The defending champion stands at No. 131 in the latest FedExCup standings and needs a strong final three weeks to qualify for the FedExCup Playoffs.

Land of 10,000 Lakes: The par-3 17th hole at TPC Twin Cities had the most balls in the water of any hole from the 2019-20 season (118). During the 2020 3M Open, there were 316 total balls in the water marking the third-most of any course last season.

FEDEXCUP and SEASON STORYLINES

The Open Championship: The Open marked the final major tournament to be contested in the 2020-21 PGA TOUR Season and the last opportunity for a winner to earn 600 FedExCup points before the start of the FedExCup Playoffs. Collin Morikawa won The Open Championship by two strokes over Jordan Spieth, earning his second major championship title and fifth PGA TOUR victory.

Barbasol Championship: Seamus Power defeated J.T. Poston with a par-4 on the sixth playoff hole (No. 18) to earn his first career PGA TOUR win in his 106th TOUR start at 34 years, 4 months, 14 days at the Barbasol Championship. Power entered the final round trailing Poston by three strokes and closed with a 5-under 67 to earn a spot in the playoff. Power became the eighth first-time winner this season.

FedExCup race is heating up: With just three weeks (4 events) left before the FedExCup Playoffs: Rickie Fowler (No. 124) needs a strong play down the stretch to qualify for the FedExCup Playoffs. In 11 seasons, Fowler has never missed the FedExCup Playoffs nor finished outside the top 100 in the FedExCup standings. Two of the nine players that have never missed the FedExCup Playoffs since the inception of the FedExCup in 2007 (Charles Howell III/130 and Ryan Moore/137) are currently on the outside looking in.

Down the stretch: In the 2020-21 season there have been 10 playoffs, and the last three playoffs have combined for 19 holes. Last season there were 16 playoff holes in 10 playoffs. The 54-hole leaders/co-leaders have won just one of the last 12 tournaments, with Phil Mickelson at the PGA Championship the only 54-hole leader/co-leader to go on to win during that stretch.

Youth in the FedExCup standings: Eight of the top 10 players in the FedExCup standings are in their 20s, led by No. 1 Collin Morikawa, who holds the lead for the first time in his career.

Angus Flanagan, a 2021 graduate from the University of Minnesota received a sponsor exemption to the 3M Open for the second consecutive year. The England native finished 11th in PGA TOUR University to earn Forme Tour status and also competed in the PGA TOUR's Genesis Invitational (MC) after winning the Genesis Invitational Collegiate Showcase in 2021.

Robert MacIntyre got into 3M Open via a top-10 finish at The Open Championship (T8) and has 283 non-member FedExCup points with only three weeks left to try and get his card through the non-member FedExCup points list. At No. 48, MacIntyre is the second-highest ranked player in the world that does not have status on the PGA TOUR (highest: Victor Perez, 45).
