Past Champion Analysis - Matthew Wolff (2019) & Michael Thompson (2020)

4th Start

Matthew Wolff earned his first career PGA TOUR victory in his fourth start on TOUR at the 3M Open, became the eighth player since 1970 to win in four or fewer starts and was the first player since Russell Henley (2013) to win in four or fewer starts on TOUR.

2nd Since 1970

Wolff became the second youngest winner on TOUR since Jordan Spieth won the John Deere Classic in 2013 at the age of 19.

Eagled 72nd

Matthew Wolff eagled the final hole in regulation and was the first player since Brooks Koepka to eagle the last hole in regulation (2018 THE CJ CUP @ NINE BRIDGES) and go onto win. Wolff's eagle on the last hole marked his second career eagle on TOUR (WMPO Rd 2).

+3.329

Matthew Wolff outperformed the field by +3.329 strokes per round from tee to green, marking one of seven winners in the 2018-19 season to gain over three strokes per round from tee to green (4 measured rds)

26 Birdies

Matthew Wolff was one of three players who made 26 birdies during the 2019 3M Open (Morikawa & Hadwin)

2nd / 4th

Matthew Wolff (2019) and Michael Thompson (2020) ranked inside the top-four in SG: Approach-the-Green en route to their respective victories at TPC Twin Cities.

74th / 59th

2019 champion Matthew Wolff finished 74th in the final FedExCup standings and Michael Thompson (2020 champion) finished 59th in the FedExCup last season
