Extended forecast – A cold start can be expected Saturday morning with temperatures in the upper 40s. Sunny skies will help temperatures rebound into the mid 70s during the afternoon. Another weak cold front will move through the area Sunday afternoon with a reinforcing shot of cooler air. Any shower activity along the front will be decreasing and should dissipate before reaching Jackson Sunday afternoon. Otherwise partly cloudy skies can be expected with highs in the upper 70s. Cooler conditions will return for Monday with highs in the low 70s.
