- Marks second 54-hole lead/co-lead on TOUR (2019 3M Open/T2)
- Made five consecutive birdies (Nos. 5-9) marking his career-best streak on TOUR (previously: four occasions/R3/ most recent 2021 Sentry Tournament of Champions); second day in a row with a 5-under 31 on the front nine
- Has made 23 birdies through 54 holes; only one other player has made more than 23 birdies through first 54 holes of a WGC stroke-play event (Tiger Woods, 2013 WGC-Workday Championship)
- Leads the field in Strokes Gained: Approach The Green (8.262) and Strokes Gained: Tee to Green (10.959)

- With a win, would join Tiger Woods as the only player to win a major and WGC before turning 25
- Making his third WGC appearance this week (best result: T20/2020 FedEx St. Jude Invitational) and seeks to become eighth player to win first World Golf Championships title in three or fewer WGC starts (most recent: Russell Knox/2015 HSBC Champions)
- Looks to become the first American player to win in the state of Florida since 2019 The Honda Classic (Keith Mitchell); last five winners in Florida: Tyrrell Hatton, Sungjae Im, Paul Casey, Rory McIlroy, Francesco Molinari
- Owns two top-10s in eight starts this season (T7/Sentry Tournament of Champions, T7/Sony Open in Hawaii)

Billy Horschel (T2/-13)

- 2014 FedExCup champion finished birdie-eagle-par for 3-under 69; seeks first individual stroke-play title since the 2017 AT&T Byron Nelson
- Leads the field in Putts (GIR) 74 on 44 and Scrambling (8 of 10)
- Last time he was inside the top two on the leaderboard after 54 holes on TOUR he went on to win (2017 AT&T Byron Nelson)
- Owns two top-10s in nine starts this season (T5/Mayakoba Golf Classic presented by UNIFIN, T7/Sony Open in Hawaii); makes 19th WGC appearance with two top-10s in 18 prior WGC starts (T9/2020 Workday Championship, T9/2019 FedEx St. Jude Invitational)

Brooks Koepka (T2/-13)

- Started bogey-bogey and finished birdie-birdie-par for a 2-under 70
- Has come from behind to win in four of his eight TOUR victories: most recent 2021 Waste Management Phoenix Open
- Owns one title (2019 FedEx St. Jude Invitational) and six other top-10s in 17 previous WGC appearances
- Seeks to become first multiple winner this season (2021 Waste Management Phoenix Open); no player has won multiple tournaments through 19 weeks, the longest streak to start a season since 1994 (Nick Price won his second tournament in the 21st week of the season)

Miscellaneous Notes

- Seven-time TOUR winner Webb Simpson (4th/-12) recorded five birdies before making bogey on his final hole for a 3-under 69; seeks first WGC title in 21st appearance with best WGC result, 2nd/2019 FedEx St. Jude Invitational
- Rory McIlroy (T5/-11) makes four birdies and an eagle for a 5-under 31 on the back nine; looks to become the second player to win all four World Golf Championships titles in his career, joining Dustin Johnson
- Defending champion Patrick Reed (T5/-11) seeks to win the WGC-Workday Championship at a different course for the third time (2014/Trump National Doral, 2020/Club de Golf Chapultepec); since 1983, Tiger Woods (WGC-Workday Championship/6 courses) and Dustin Johnson (THE NORTHERN TRUST/3 courses) are the only two players to win an event on TOUR at more than two different venues (non-majors and single course events)
- Hideki Matsuyama (T7/-10) has yet to record a three putt this week and has extended his TOUR-leading streak without a three putt to 221 consecutive holes entering the final round
- Trevor Simsby's (T35/-2) hole-in-one at No. 6 (7 iron, 170 yards) was the 14th in tournament history and marks the second consecutive week on TOUR where a player making their first TOUR start has made a hole-in-one (Tae Hoon Kim/The Genesis Invitational)
- With two eagles on the back nine today, it's the seventh time Dustin Johnson (T42/-1) has made two eagles on either the front nine or back nine in a round in his career (most recent: R2/2020 THE NORTHERN TRUST)
