On Wednesday, PGA TOUR Champions and DICK'S Sporting Goods announced a three-year deal that will see the DICK'S Sporting Goods Open continue at En-Joie Golf Club through 2024. The DICK'S Sporting Goods Open is operated by Broome County Community Charities, Inc. (BCCC) and has donated over $18 million back to charity.

2019 Recap

Doug Barron became the 13th open qualifier to win a PGA TOUR Champions event, holing two 15-foot birdie putts after a rain delay to beat Fred Couples by two strokes in the 2019 DICK'S Sporting Goods Open. Couples entered Sunday T17 after rounds of 70-68 and carded consecutive birdies on Nos. 10-12 to sit one stroke behind Barron. Couples birdied Nos. 16 and 17 to take the lead, but when Barron birdied No. 15, Couples secured the runner-up position. Woody Austin finished third at 13-under 203 and Scott McCarron, the 2017 winner, had a 69 to match Colin Montgomerie (66) at 12-under and a T4 finish.

In his second start after turning 50, Barron closed with a 6-under 66 at En Joie Golf Club to finish the wire-to-wire victory at 17-under 199. Barron finished the tournament with one eagle, 16 birdies and only one bogey. Since winning the 2019 DICK'S Sporting Goods Open, he has made 33 starts with five finishes in the top-10.

B.C. Open Champions in the Field

Five players in the field won the B.C. Open when it was played at En-Joie Golf Club from 1972-2005: Spike McRoy (2002), Fred Funk (1996), John Daly (1992), Joey Sindelar (1987, 1985) and Jay Haas (1981), who is making his 30th start at the course.

Flashback for Furyk

Jim Furyk will make his tournament debut at the DICK'S Sporting Goods Open this week, but he is no stranger to En-Joie Golf Course. While on the PGA TOUR, Furyk made three appearances at the B.C. Open in 1994 (CUT), 1995 (T17) and 1998 (T25), carding a best score of 8-under 64 during the final round in 1995.

During the 2020-21 combined season on PGA TOUR Champions, the 51-year-old has two victories, nine top-10s and he's currently 9th in Charles Schwab Cup standings.

Els Escapes to En-Joie

World Golf Hall of Fame member Ernie Els is competing for the first time at En-Joie Golf Course. Els has played in 23 events during the 2020-21 wraparound season, including 12 top-10 finishes and two wins (Hoag Classic and SAS Championship).

Els is one of 11 first timers in the field, including 2020-21 tournament winners Shane Bertsch, Alex Cejka, Darren Clarke, Jim Furyk and Dicky Pride. The other players making their DICK'S Sporting Goods Open debuts this week are Cameron Beckman, Tim Herron, Frank Lickliter II, Len Mattiace and Paul Stankowski.

Home Sweet Home

Horseheads, New York native Joey Sindelar will return to En-Joie Golf Course for his 35th appearance (22 B.C. Opens and 12 DICK'S Sporting Goods Open events). He became the first player to win twice at En-Joie (1985 and 1987 B.C. Open) and is the only player to go wire-to-wire at this course (1987). Sindelar has five top-10s at the DICK'S Sporting Goods Open including a pair of T3 finishes (2012, 2017).

Seven Past Champions in the Field

Seven past winners of the DICK'S Sporting Goods Open are in the field for this week's tournament which includes each champion since 2011. Defending champion Doug Barron (2019) joins Scott McCarron (2017), Paul Goydos (2016), Jeff Maggert (2015), Bernhard Langer (2014), Willie Wood (2012) and John Huston (2011).

Birthday Wishes

Kevin Sutherland was born on the Fourth of July and will celebrate his 57th birthday on Sunday. He made history when he carded a 13-under 59 in the second round of the 2014 DICK'S Sporting Goods Open. It is the only sub-60 round to be recorded in PGA TOUR Champions history.

Going for the Hat Trick

Seven players have two wins during the 2020-21 season, but each of them is looking to become the first three-time winner on Tour this season. Four of them are in the field this week: Darren Clarke, Ernie Els, Miguel Angel Jimenez, Jim Furyk, Kevin Sutherland and Alex Cejka. The other players with two wins this season are Jerry Kelly, Phil Mickelson and Steve Stricker.

Charles Schwab Cup Update

With his win at the American Family Insurance Championship, Jerry Kelly spent his second week at the top spot of the Charles Schwab Cup standings this season. Kelly, who previously held the No. 1 position for nine weeks in 2018, passed Bernhard Langer, who had held the position for five weeks. Kelly becomes the seventh different player to hold the top spot in the Schwab Cup standings this season, joining Langer (14 weeks), Miguel Angel Jimenez (2), Scott Parel (2), Ernie Els (2), Kevin Sutherland (2) and Brett Quigley (1).
