Notes

Justin and Mike Thomas become the fourth team to win the PNC Championship in their first start

Team Thomas was the first team to win the PNC Championship with a father playing as partner

Players with multiple PNC Father/Son Challenge victories:

1. Raymond Floyd (5) – 1995, 1996, 1997, 2000, 2001
2. Bernhard Langer (4) – 2005, 2006, 2014, 2019
3. Larry Nelson (3) – 2004, 2007, 2008
4. Davis Love III (2) – 2012, 2018

Lee Trevino is the only player to have participated in all 22 editions of the PNC Father/Son Challenge. Raymond Floyd, Larry Nelson and Hale Irwin each played the first 17.

All but one multiple winners of the tournament have done so with more than one child.

In 2014, Bernhard Langer became the third player to win the PNC Father/Son Challenge with two different children, joining Raymond Floyd and Larry Nelson. He previously won with son, Stefan, in both 2005 and 2006 before winning with Jason in 2014.

Floyd won the first three events with his son, Raymond Jr. in 1995, 1996, and 1997. Floyd then won with son Robert in 2000 and 2001.

Nelson won with son Drew in 2004 and 2008 and with son Josh in 2007.

Davis Love III has won twice with the same son, Davis “Dru” Love IV.

The 36-hole event features a scramble format and until 2018 two teams shared the 18-hole scramble record of 15-under-par 57 (Ray/Ray Floyd, Jr. /Rd. 2/1995 at Windsor Club; Bob/David Charles/Rd. 1/1998 at Windsor Club).

This was broken in 2018 by Davis Love III and Dru Love with a record score of 16-under-par 56. This record also led to the tournament record being broken and set at 26-under-par 118 beating four teams (Bob/David Charles/1998; Jack/Gary Nicklaus/1999; Raymond/Robert Floyd/1999; Larry/Drew Nelson/2004, Angel/Angel Cabrera Jr) by a single stroke.

For the first two years of the event, a better-ball format was used on the first day.
