Today – Low clouds are widespread this morning but will eventually give way to a mix of clouds and sun later today. A sea breeze will develop quickly today, likely after 10am, with a few passing showers possible. This threat should end early this afternoon as the sea breeze moves farther inland. Temperatures will top out near 80 degrees with southwesterly winds gusting over 15 mph at times. Forecast rainfall: Less than 0.05". Sunrise: 7:04am / Sunset: 6:23pm

Extended forecast – A cold front will move through the area tonight into Saturday morning. The main consequence will be an increase in low clouds overnight with some patchy fog possible. A shower can't be completely ruled out either, however dry conditions are favored. Skies will clear Saturday afternoon with pleasant conditions continuing into Sunday.
