WELCOME TO THE 2022 AT&T BYRON NELSON

We're glad you could be here to celebrate the 54th anniversary of the AT&T Byron Nelson, and we're excited to be back at TPC Craig Ranch for the second straight year. This course is designed to be played by the best.

As in years past, the tournament proceeds will go to Momentous Institute, an acclaimed Dallas nonprofit that provides thousands of children and families with mental health and educational resources. By supporting the AT&T Byron Nelson, you're supporting Momentous Institute and helping to make a positive impact in the lives of all its students.

While you enjoy this week's event, we encourage you to root for the players as they approach the 17th hole. For every birdie or better, AT&T is pledging $2,500 to connect children to the tools they need to succeed and improve their educational experiences.

AT&T is dedicated to bringing affordable and accessible internet to more Americans, and we've committed to invest $2 billion from 2021 to 2023 to help achieve this goal and provide all the learning, healthcare and employment opportunities that come with having strong, reliable connectivity.

On behalf of everyone at AT&T, thank you for joining us this week. Have a great time.

Sincerely,

John Stankey CEO – AT&T Inc.

In 1945, Byron Nelson accomplished an incredible winning streak. He finished that year with 18 victories, including 11 straight, and established a record for the lowest scoring average (68.33), which remained untouched for 55 years.

During his career, Byron Nelson won 52 PGA TOURsanctioned tournaments, including the 1939 U.S. Open, the 1937 and 1942 Masters, and the 1940 and 1945 PGA Championships. In 1968, Byron Nelson lent his name to the Byron Nelson Golf Classic, and the result has been a long and successful partnership.

In 2006, Byron was posthumously awarded the Congressional Gold Medal for his humanitarian efforts. He passed away in September 2006.

In 2007, Salesmanship Club announced the creation of a special award to honor Byron's legacy. The Byron Nelson International Junior Golf Awards were awarded for the first time at the 2008 tournament. The awards were created to continue Byron Nelson's legacy of encouraging and mentoring young golfers. Through this awards program, exceptional junior golfers from around the world with strong character, academics and commitment to community are identified and invited to the tournament each year.

How We Became Who We Are

THE 2022 AT&T BYRON NELSON IS THE 57TH EVENT IN A SERIES OF DALLAS-BASED PROFESSIONAL GOLF TOURNAMENTS DATING BACK TO 1944. THIS YEAR MARKS THE FIRST TOURNAMENT PLAYED AT TPC CRAIG RANCH IN McKINNEY AND THE FIRST EVENT HELD OUTSIDE OF DALLAS COUNTY.

The TPC Four Seasons Resort and Club Dallas at Las Colinas served as the host site 1983 - 2017.

Byron Nelson with students from the Salesmanship Club's Momentous School.

In 1968, Byron Nelson agreed to lend his name to the Dallas tournament, becoming the first player to have a PGA TOUR event named in his honor.

Byron and Peggy Nelson with members of the Salesmanship Club of Dallas.

he host of the 2022 AT&T Byron Nelson is Salesmanship Club of Dallas in partnership with Salesmanship Club Charitable Golf of Dallas. The Salesmanship Club of Dallas orginated the series in 1944, holding an annual tournament for three years.

After a 10-year lapse in the local series, James J. Ling brought professional golf back to Dallas in 1956. Although Northwood Club held the U.S. Open in 1952, Oak Cliff Country Club assumed sponsorship of the tournament that evolved into what is now the AT&T Byron Nelson.

Oak Cliff Country Club continued to host the tournament, referred to then as the Dallas Open, until 1966, with only two interruptions during its 10-year sponsorship.

There was no Dallas Open held in 1963, the same year the PGA Championship came to North Texas. That year's final major championship was held at the Dallas Athletic Club with the Salesmanship Club as its local sponsor. Additionally, there was no Dallas Open in 1965 in order to move the event from fall to spring on the PGA TOUR schedule.

After the 1966 tournament, Oak Cliff Country Club returned the sponsor's role to the Salesmanship Club, which staged the 1967 event at the Oak Cliff location in accordance with the transfer agreement.

Salesmanship Club began a new era for the tournament in 1968 by renaming it the Byron Nelson Golf Classic, moving it to Preston Trail Golf Club and making the host club a joint sponsor of the event.

For Salesmanship Club, 2017 marked its 55th year as a golf sponsor (1944-1946, 1963, 1967 and each year from 1968 forward). After 15 years at Preston Trail Golf Club, the tournament relocated to the TPC Four Seasons Resort Las Colinas in Irving, Texas. The 2017 tournament marked the 35th year that the Four Seasons Resort and Club Las Colinas hosted it. 2018 marked the tournament's return to Dallas and inagural year at Trinity Forest Golf Club. In 2021 the tournament offically moved to its new home at TPC Craig Ranch in McKinney and is making its return in 2022.

When GTE became the event's first title sponsor in 1988, the tournament's name changed to the GTE Byron Nelson Classic. In the summer of 2000, GTE merged with Bell Atlantic to form Verizon Communications, requiring the tournament's name to change again.

In 2003, Salesmanship Club secured the future of the tournament by signing a new agreement with Plano-based company EDS. With the change to a new title sponsor in 2003, tournament officials decided to change the tournament name from Classic to Championship. In 2008, HP acquired EDS and assumed title sponsorship, changing the tournament name to the HP Byron Nelson Championship. In November 2012, the tournament announced that starting in 2015, AT&T would take over as the title sponsor.

In 2006, we lost our dear friend and tournament namesake, Byron Nelson. The tournament is proud to carry on his legacy of helping children and families through its support of Momentous Institute.

A Proud History

AT&T Byron Nelson A Rich Heritage

With a rich golf tradition in Dallas, including a U.S. Open and two PGA Championships, the AT&T Byron Nelson has a long history in professional golf that traces its roots back to 1944. That year, Byron Nelson teed it up at Lakewood Country Club and won the Texas Victory Open by 10 strokes over his friend Harold "Jug" McSpaden. This annual tournament would continue for two more years, first as the Dallas Open and then as the Dallas Invitational.

Nelson's victory at Lakewood Country Club was the beginning of two remarkable years in which he would win 26 tournaments, including his amazing streak of 11 straight victories in 1945.

The AT&T Byron Nelson is now the ninth longest-running active tournament on the PGA TOUR schedule. Aside from the three U.S. majors (the U.S. Open, PGA Championship and the Masters), only eight PGA TOUR events were established prior to 1944. While 10 years elapsed before an annual Dallas-based event began again in 1956, the stage was set for the introduction of the current tournament, which began as the Byron Nelson Golf Classic in 1968.

BYRON NELSON ETCHED OUT A CAREER IN PROFESSIONAL GOLF

unlike any gentleman who played the game before, or any who has played since. While his awe-inspiring accomplishments in the game of golf are widely revered, it was Mr. Nelson's personal qualities such as kindness and dedication that won the respect and admiration of his peers, present-day players and fans of all ages.

The AT&T Byron Nelson was the first PGA TOUR event named in honor of a professional golfer. The decision in 1968 by Salesmanship Club of Dallas officials to name the tournament for Byron Nelson resulted in a happy union for both parties. Mr. Nelson's annual participation in the event was a large reason that the tournament's charitable donations to Momentous Institute have exceeded over $155 million since its inception.

Byron Nelson's ties to the North Texas area date back to his birth on February 4, 1912, on a cotton farm in Ellis County, near Waxahachie, Texas. Growing up in Fort Worth, Mr. Nelson played golf in the Dallas and Fort Worth areas. He lived at Fairway Ranch in Roanoke, Texas, his home since 1946, with his wife, Peggy.

After retiring from professional golf, Mr. Nelson strived to touch lives in many different ways. He shared his profound knowledge of the game as both a teacher and analyst with his pupils, including six-time PGA TOUR Player of the Year Tom Watson, and 1964 PGA TOUR Player of the Year and 2000 United States President's Cup team captain, Ken Venturi. In 1983, the City of Dallas honored Mr. Nelson for his work on behalf of the tournament and its charity.

The Dallas All-Sports Association (DASA) awarded him the first-ever Lamar Hunt Award in 2000, a national honor that is awarded based on longevity and achievement in sports, combined with integrity, character and service to the community. The DASA also saluted Mr. Nelson with its Distinguished Service Award in 1985.

In 1996, Mr. Nelson helped introduce the Byron Nelson Golf School at the Four Seasons Resort and Club Las Colinas by hitting the first ball off the lesson tee. In 1992, he was honored on his 80th birthday by the Four Seasons with the dedication of a 9'6" bronze likeness. The sculpture is now the focal point of Byron's Circle, an area adjacent to the No. 1 tee of TPC Four Seasons and the golf shop.

In addition to winning tournaments and setting records, Mr. Nelson is also remembered for the honor and sportsmanship that he brought to the game. In 1974, he received the Richardson Award, given annually by the Golf Writers Association of America to an individual who has consistently made outstanding contributions to golf. That same year, he received the Bob Jones Award, presented annually for distinguished sportsmanship in golf.

The Memorial Tournament in Muirfield Village, Ohio, honored Mr. Nelson in 1980. Each year, the theme of the Memorial Tournament is centered around a professional golfer who has played the game with conspicuous honor. Mr. Nelson followed Robert T. Jones, Walter Hagen, Francis Ouimet and Gene Sarazen as honorees.

Byron Nelson won 52 PGA TOUR-sanctioned tournaments during his relatively brief professional career, including a record 11 straight victories from March 8 through August 5, 1945. His 52 wins place him sixth on the all-time winners list.

Mr. Nelson died in September, 2006. The day after he died, President George W. Bush signed the bill that awarded Nelson the Congressional Gold Medal, the nation's highest and most distinguished civilian award, for his humanitarian efforts.

Any PGA TOUR event played in the spring will endure its share of inclement weather, but throughout the years, the AT&T Byron Nelson has encountered good luck with the elements. Since 1968, the tournament has completed 72 holes in 42 of the 46 events, losing only four complete rounds of golf in that span (two rounds lost in 1994, one each in 1990 and 1992). # TPC Craig Ranch Hole-by-Hole

Total Yardage: 7,496 Par 72

Yardage Front 9: 3,753 Yardage Back 9: 3,743

No. 1 431 Yards, par 4

You have to make a decision with your tee shot to take on the left fairway bunker or not. The second shot plays about half a club uphill to a blind landing area. The ideal approch shot favors the left side of the green, there is a slope on the middle right side that take the ball to a run off area.

No. 2 472 Yards, par 4

There is more room on the right side off the tee than it appears. Playing down the left side of the fairway will give you a better angle to attack the green. The green slopes right to left, the best miss is either short or long and left.

No. 3 429 Yards, par 4

You can be aggressive off the tee and try to catch the slope behind the bunker to have a short iron approch. If you play safe off the tee and land in the fattest part of the fairway you will have a mid to long iron approch. The green has a false front..

No. 4 216 Yards, par 3

The first of our Par 3's. This hole should be a mid to long iron. Avoid the big bunker short left of the green.

No. 5 575 Yards, par 5

This long par 5 is downwind with the predominant South wind. Long hitters may choose less than driver off the tee. There is more room left once you're inside 150 yards, this also give you the best angle to attack the green. There is a big slope front left of the green, this helps you get close with a front pin location.

No. 6 358 Yards, par 4

This is a short par 4 that brings a lot of stratagy into play. The fairway is well protected by bunkers, if you want to attack this hole finding the fairway is a must. If you hit driver off the tee and get to close to the green, attacking a front pin location is difficult. This is one of our smallest greens, be aggressive if find the fairway and have a wedge in your hand.

No. 7 232 Yards, par 3

This is a large green that slopes back to front. It is best to miss your tee shot short right, this will give you the best oppurtunity to get up and down.

No. 8 484 Yards, par 4

The more room right off the tee than first appears but playing down the left side of the fairway gives you the best angle for your approch shot. Short left is the best miss.

No. 9 556 Yards, par 5

This is a tough tee shot on a windy day because of the forced carry. Plenty of room right off the tee, playing down the left side will result in more run out and better angle to the green. The big decision you have to make is with your lay up, being aggressive and taking on the creek opens up the green for third shot. This green has three tiers, distance and spin control with your wedge shot is a must

No. 10 471 Yards, par 4

This hole normally plays down wind. Avoiding the fairways bunkers allows you to attack this green. This green is large with suttle breaks, making reading putts difficult.

No. 11 456 Yards, par 4

The tee shot is tougher than if looks, it plays uphill and normally has a left to right wind. The second shot plays at least a club more and you can not see the putting surface. The green slopes back to front so the prefered miss is short..

No. 12 544 Yards, par 5

The ideal tee short is down the left side of the fairway, the fairway slope left to right. The longer player can attack this green in two, most players will lay up short of the creek. The front half of the green slops back to back to front, the back half slope hard right to left.

No. 13 510 Yards, par 4

This is probably the toughest par four on the course. The tee shot plays uphill and has a big forced carry over bunkers and a creek. There is a bail out left for shorter hitters. The green is protected both front and back with bunker, missing short and left will give you the best chance for getting up and down. The green has a ridge running through it, front to back.

No. 14 331 Yards, par 4

This short par four is a through risk/reward hole. The shorter hitters have to decide what yardage second shot they want to have, there is more room right off the tee than appears. Most big hitter will take on the green, the bunkers right are always there to catch a bail out shot. This is one of our most undulated greens, you have to be accurate with your wedges if you want to make birdie.

No. 15 215 Yards, par 3

This is a mid to long iron par three, with the water down the left side the bunkers right see a lot of action. The green has a ridge that runs up the middle from front to back that creates a bowl for middle/front pins.

No. 16 492 Yards, par 4

A long and testing par four, into the wind this hole will challenge the best of players. You have to avoid the bunkers down the left if you want to hit this green in two. The bunkers front right hide what is one of the biggest greens on the course. Hitting the middle of this green is never a bad play. There is a severe slope on the left side of the green, and getting up and down from the chipping area is hard.

No. 17 171 Yards, par 3

A true sleeper par 3, don't let the yardage fool you. The wind will make hitting this green a true test. Any shot coming up short will be punished by the false front on the green and may roll back into the front bunker.

No. 18 553 Yards, par 5

Another risk/reward hole to finsh, there is a large landing area for those who have to lay up. The longer hitter off the tee will have an approach shot between 220-250 to the middle of the green. This green has two distinct levels, and if you want to make birdie being on the correct level is a must.

Despite the relentless rain and shortened course that impacted the 2015 AT&T Byron Nelson tournament, Steven Bowditch snagged his second PGA TOUR title with a four stroke win. Bowditch, the Aussie native but now Dallas resident, relied on his tight short game and solid putting stroke to pull out a four stroke win against Charley Hoffman, Scott Pinckney and Jimmy Walker. He had 27 birdies and became only the seventh player to lead all four rounds of the tournament, the last player being Tom Watson in 1980.

With the lead in sight the entire tournament, Todd finally took over by two strokes when he birdied the tenth hole in the final round of the HP Byron Nelson Championship. Maintaining the lead throughout the next eight holes proved to be a bit of a challenge, but Todd hung in there and claimed his first PGA TOUR title with a two-stroke lead over Mike Weir. Todd's win earned him a spot in the 2015 Masters and made him the fifth former University of Georgia player to win on the PGA TOUR (joining Bubba Watson, Harris English, Russell Henley and Chris Kirk).

After entering the final round of the HP Byron Nelson Championship trailing Keegan Bradley by one stroke, Bae birdied four of his first seven holes and then survived a double-bogey on the par-4 ninth hole for a 1-under 69 and two-stroke victory over Bradley. Bae won in his first start at the event, becoming the third player in the last four years to win the tournament in their first start (Jason Day in 2010 and Bradley in 2011). Bae was the 11th player to make the HP Byron Nelson Championship his first TOUR victory and third in four years (Day and Bradley). The 11-time winner in Asia became the first Korean to win the HP Byron Nelson Championship.

Keegan Bradley entered the final round of the HP Byron Nelson Championship four strokes behind tournament-leader Ryan Palmer, but posted a 2-under 68 Sunday to finish regulation tied with Palmer at 3-under 277. Went on to defeat Palmer on the first playoff hole with a par-4 on the 18th hole, becoming the third member of the 2010 Nationwide Tour graduating class to win in 2011. Winning score of 3-under 277 was the highest in relation to par at the event since Bruce Lietzke's 1-over par score in 1981 and the highest on TOUR in a non-major since David Duval's 3-under winning score at the 1999 PLAYERS Championship. With the victory, Bradley became the TOUR's youngest winner in 2011 and the sixth first-time winner of the season and fourth rookie winner. He moved to No. 20 in the FedExCup standings. For his victory, his caddie (Steven Hale) won a new Cadillac.

Jason Day nearly withdrew Thursday morning because he felt ill due to medication for a lingering sinus infection, but finished with a final-round 72 to win at age 22. But he thought he might have blown it when, holding a one-stroke lead, his approach to the final hole went into the water (for the third time on the week on that hole). He got a reprieve when playing partner Blake Adams — who said he didn't see where Day's ball went — knocked his ball into the water, too. Day salvaged a bogey to finish at 10-under 270, while Adams took a double bogey and dropped into a tie for second at 8-under with Brian Gay and Jeff Overton.

Adam Scott captured his sixth title on the PGA TOUR when he birdied the third playoff hole from 48 to edge Ryan Moore in the 16th playoff at the Byron Championship. He became the third Australian to win the tournament, joining Bruce Devlin (1969) and Peter Thomson (1956). Scott's victory propelled him into the top-10 on the PGA TOUR money list and made him the seventh player in his 20s to win on the PGA TOUR in 2008.

Brett Wetterich earned his first PGA TOUR win at the 2006 Championship. Wetterich's closing 2-under 68, which included a frustrating front nine, put him at 12-under 268. He beat Trevor Immelman by one stroke after Immelman's ball bounced into the new lake on TPC No. 18 during the final round. Wetterich also competed in the Championship in 2002 and 2005. His win in 2006 moved him up to No. 7 on the AT&T Byron Nelson Money List.

This was the first time in AT&T Byron Nelson history that the champion earned a $1 million share of the purse. Singh won for the first time in his 40s and recorded his fifth multiple-win season of his career. At 40, He was the second oldest player to win the tournament at the time; Loren Roberts was 43 when he won in 1999. Jesper Parnevik fired a final round 66 to overcome a three-stroke deficit to tie Davis Love III and Phil Mickelson at the end of regulation play. Parnevik went on to defeat Love and Mickelson in the second Nelson playoff in as many years. The playoff was the second straight for the tournament and actually began between Parnevik, Love and Phil Mickelson...Mickelson dropped out after missing a birdie putt on the second playoff hole. Parnevik captured the title one hole later with a short par putt. Low round of the tournament went to Davis Love III and Tiger Woods, who each shot 63 - Love in the second round and Woods during his late charge in the final round.

John Cook's final round 65, in the midst of hazy and windy Sunday conditions, was good enough to earn him the 10th PGA TOUR victory of his career. The impressive three-stroke victory came after the California native entered the final nine holes trailing then-leader Fred Couples by four strokes. A careerhigh $450,000 champion's purse helped Cook to surpass the $1 million single-season earnings mark for the second time in his career.

Tiger Woods continued his brilliant play with a record-tying victory. His 17-under, 263, matched Ernie Els' winning score in 1995. This was Woods' first PGA TOUR start since his record-shattering performance a few weeks earlier at The Masters. Woods was on his game from the start, trailing Jim Furyk by one stroke after the first round, then leading the rest of the way.

Although Phil Mickelson led the 1996 Nelson after the second round, he constantly and successfully fended off close challenges to win his third PGA TOUR event of the year. The left-handed Mickelson dropped in a 30-foot pitch shot on the TPC's par 5 16th hole in the final round, which ended the hopes of runner-up Craig Parry, who would finish two strokes back.

A rain-soaked tournament week resulted in a 36-hole event, the shortest in Nelson tournament history. The tournament also saw the first six-man playoff in PGA TOUR history. Neal Lancaster sank a four-foot birdie putt on the first extra hole to claim the title. Only one round was completed on the TPC, as the adjoining Cottonwood Valley Course was used for the first time on Saturday and Sunday to complete the necessary two rounds required to make it an official PGA TOUR event. One round was played on each course.

*Par for 36 holes is 140.

Scott Simpson escaped a shaky final round by sinking a 12-foot putt for par on the final hole to win a sunshine-filled 1993 Nelson. Billy Mayfair shot a 61, breaking the tournament's best-round record (Sam Snead holds the Dallas record at 60) on the second round. Shortly afterward, two-time Nelson champion Bruce Lietzke tied the previous record of 62. Another record was tied when Dan Forsman turned in a two-round score of 129. His second round 64 was one stroke better than his opening round

Nick Price, using a second-round 64 as a springboard to success, overcame a two-shot deficit in the final round to win the 1991 Nelson. Price said he was nervous on the final two holes, but admitted, "I can't tell you what it means to win on the TOUR again." His previous TOUR victory came over Jack Nicklaus at the 1983 World Series of Golf.

Champion's Share: $135,000

Sinking a birdie putt on the first extra hole, Bruce Lietzke won his second Nelson title and, for the second time, also won in a playoff. In 1981, Lietzke ended Tom Watson's run of three consecutive Nelson victories in a sudden death playoff, and this time, faced Clarence Rose, who was tied for the lead on the final hole after Leitzke bogeyed the 18th hole. It was the third playoff in the past four years and eighth sudden death in the tournament's 21-year history.

Nelson records snapped, crackled and popped under mostly windless, ideal golfing conditions with the highlight of a new tournament low of 62 fired by Bob Lohr in the second round at the TPC. Although low and mid-60 scores were prevalent, suspense prevailed until the last moment as Fred Couples withstood a stiff challenge from Mark Calcavecchia in the closing round, winning a playoff on the third extra hole by sinking a par putt. Calcavecchia had closing rounds of 63-64 to tie Couples in regulation.

Andy Bean took advantage of a newly redesigned Tournament Players Course but Nelson tradition held true to form with a close, down-to-the-wire finish. Bean edged Mark Wiebe by one stroke for his second PGA TOUR victory of the year. Former Nelson champion Mark Hayes was the first day leader with a 64, but Bean led the final three rounds, never firing a single round over 68. Tom Watson missed his first Nelson cut in 15 years.

The AT&T Byron Nelson saw its sixth playoff in 1985 and the tournament's first at The Las Colinas Sports Club Course when Bob Eastwood defeated Payne Stewart on the first extra hole after Stewart bogeyed. Stewart had a chance to win it all on the final hole of regulation with only a bogey, but scored his only double bogey of the tournament on the 72nd hole. Mac O'Grady shot a course record 63 and tied tournament records for his first two rounds, but couldn't keep up the pace after leading the first three days.

Denied a victory at the tournament in 1977 when Ray Floyd swept past him on the last four holes, Texan Ben Crenshaw fired a 66 to overtake Lanny Wadkins and Hal Sutton to win the first Nelson played at Las Colinas Sports Club. Sutton missed a putt on 18 that would have tied him for the lead. The win capped a comeback year for Crenshaw, who had his best year on the TOUR since 1980.

It all came to an end for Tom Watson in his quest for a fourth straight win at the tournament, which would have tied a PGA TOUR record. Trailing Watson by three shots going into Sunday, Bruce Lietzke overtook the Missourian on the final round, forced a playoff and watched as Watson took a bogey to Lietzke's par on the first sudden-death hole when he missed a two-and-a-half-foot putt.

Trying to repeat the previous year's exciting finish, Texarkana's Bill Rogers made up four shots in the final round, almost catching Tom Watson but settling for second place one stroke behind the four-time Nelson champion. Watson, who led the tournament wire-to-wire, took his third consecutive Nelson crown and closed in on a PGA TOUR record of four consecutive wins at one tournament, held by Walter Hagen at the PGA from 1924 to 1927.

Tied at 6-under, Tom Watson held off a furious finish by Dallas' own Lee Trevino to win his second Nelson title. Watson met every challenge thrown his way by Trevino during the final four holes. Playing behind Trevino, Watson answered Trevino's birdie on 16 with one of his own on 15 and again on the par-4 17 to go ahead. Both made a par on the final hole and Watson walked away with a one-stroke win and second Nelson victory.

Ray Floyd outdueled Ben Crenshaw on the last four holes of this Nelson to take a one-stroke victory. Crenshaw, who had a three-shot lead with three holes left and a one-shot lead with two remaining, couldn't hold on as Floyd eagled the 15th hole and birdied 17. Crenshaw, playing ahead of Floyd, bogeyed both 17 and 18, allowing Floyd to move on to a two-stroke victory. Ironically, the four-hole totals by both golfers were almost identical to their previous year's four-round total: Crenshaw shot a 279 in PGA TOUR sophomore Lanny Wadkins defeated veteran Dan Sikes on the first extra hole of a sudden death playoff when the 42-year-old Sikes three-putted from 35 feet, missing a 24-inch par putt that would have carried the playoff to the 74th tee. Incredibly, Sikes had holed a 35-footer to salvage par at the 72nd green to tie Wadkins at 3-under par. Playing two groups in front of Sikes, Wadkins had knocked in a 25-foot birdie putt on the final green to set up the dramatic finish.

Some say this was the greatest Byron Nelson tournament ever played. Certainly, it was one of the most memorable. The game's two greatest stars, Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, tied after 72 holes at 274. They entered a sudden death playoff, where Nicklaus won the title by sinking an 18-inch birdie putt on the first extra hole. John Schroeder and Lee Trevino just missed the playoff by firing a 67 and 66, respectively, in the final round.

Notes: History was made in Dallas as Earl Stewart Jr. became  $% \label{eq:Dallas} % $

first home-club pro ever to win a PGA TOUR title. The competition was rugged as he nudged names like Arnold Palmer, Doug Sanders and Gay Brewer by only a stroke for the victory. His 278 was good for $4,300.

Notes: Julius Boros, already a big winner in Dallas when he took the 1952 U.S. Open at Northwood Country Club, came through in Big D again, but had to hold on to win by one stroke. Earl Stewart Jr., with a 64, Dow Finsterwald, with a 65, and Bo Wininger, with a 68, all on the final day, pushed Boros to the final pin after he had led most of the tournament.

Notes: Snead became the first back-to-back Dallas tournament champion as the tournament shifted to Oak Cliff Country Club for an early June date. This triumph was more difficult than the previous year's, as Snead had to win a playoff with Gary Player Julius Boros and John McMullin for the victory. Snead had to come from five strokes back entering the final round, winning with a birdie putt on the first hole of the playoff.

Notes: Victory was dramatic for the first of two tournaments in Dallas, this coming in May as Don January sank a memorable eagle on the 72nd hole to edge past Dow Finsterwald and Doug Ford by one stroke. January won $6,000 at Preston Hollow, which would be the scene the next week of the second event sponsored by Jim Ling. January's opening day 64 gave him an early lead but the low round of the tournament came when Bob Inman carded a 63 on the final day. This was Arnold Palmer's first appearance in a Dallas event.

Nelson didn't play they year and Snead could manage only a tie for 27th after shooting an opening round of 78. Hogan took over the lead from Vic Ghezzi after the second round and was never headed, winning member of the era's golf triumvirate, Sam Snead, won his first of three Dallas events. The tournament was called the Dallas Open and had a field of only 22 golfers. It was one of only 17 tournaments of the 35 tournaments lined up that year that escaped Nelson's victory grasp. He finished third, five strokes off the pace and behind McSpaden, who was runner-up for the second time in a row. Nelson's streak of 18 straight remarkable victories had ended only three weeks before this event.

Notes: World War II had ended the previous month and another

the

PGA put on during this war year and Dallas was one of them. Nelson won by 10 strokes over his wartime playing pal, Harold "Jug" McSpaden at Lakewood Country Club. Lord Byron went on to be named the Associated Press Athlete of the Year, an award he repeated the next year. He also won $2,000 here.

Wire-to-Wire Winners

Only two wire-to-wire winners have emerged in the history of the AT&T Byron Nelson. Since moving to the TPC Four Seasons Resort and Club Dallas at Las Colinas, the tournament has produced no wire-to-wire finishes, thus contributing to its reputation as one of the most highly competitive events on the PGA TOUR schedule.

The first came in 1976, when Mark Hayes finished the first round with a 66 to lead by one stroke over Don Bies. After firing a second-round 67, Hayes' two-round total of 133 gave him a two-stroke lead over Bob E. Smith. Shooting a 71 in the third round, Hayes took a three-stroke lead over Bies into the final round. Hayes finished the tournament with a solid 69 to claim a two-stroke victory over Bies.

Tom Watson became the second wire-to-wire champion in 1980. Watson carded a 64 in the first round to open a two-stroke lead over George Cadle and Curtis Strange. He followed with a 70 in the second round, losing a stroke to the field to finish the day with a one-stroke advantage over Strange. A 69 on Saturday kept Watson two strokes ahead of Strange before eventually winning his third straight Nelson, holding off Bill Rogers' late charge with

The Byron Nelson Award

The Byron Nelson Award is given by the PGA TOUR and is based on each player's adjusted scoring average. The adjusted score is computed from the average score of the field at each tournament. As a result, a player's score may be higher or lower than his actual score. Actual scoring average was used to determine the scoring leader prior to 1988.

In order to qualify for the Byron Nelson Award, a player must compete in a minimum of 50 official rounds on the PGA TOUR.

Biggest 54 Hole Leads

The AT&T Byron Nelson is well known for its close competitions, often decided by the final shot of regulation play or by a playoff.

Miller Barber, who withstood a furious late charge by Kermit Zarley in 1968, enjoyed the greatest lead of the tournaments played thus far when he went into the final round leading by five strokes. Mac O'Grady, who had a three-stroke lead in the 1985 tournament, had the biggest lead of a non-winner.
