Miscellaneous Notes

- In his first playoff on TOUR, Sepp Straka finishes runner-up for his fourth top-10 of the season, moving to No. 8 in the FedExCup; has never made it past the first FedExCup Playoffs event in three previous seasons; missed six straight cuts entering the week; reaches four top-10s on a season for the first time in his career; was seeking to become the ninth multiple winner this season
- Adam Scott (T5), who entered the week No. 77 in the FedExCup, moves to No. 45 to advance to next week’s BMW Championship for the first time since 2020; T5 marks his 19th top-10 in a FedExCup Playoffs event, the second most of any player (23, Dustin Johnson); seeks to qualify for the TOUR Championship for the ninth time and first since 2019
- Trey Mullinax (T5), who entered the week No. 70, moved to No. 40 in the FedExCup and will make his first start in the BMW Championship in his second Playoffs berth
- Tony Finau (T5) posts 68 for his 13th consecutive round in the 60s on TOUR and moves to No. 5 in the FedExCup; was seeking to become the first player to win three straight starts on TOUR since Dustin Johnson in the 2016-17 season (The Genesis Invitational, WGC-Mexico Championship, WGC-Dell Technologies Match Play)
- Collin Morikawa (T5) records four rounds in the 60s for the first time since The Genesis Invitational in February; T5 marks his eighth top-10 of the season and he moves to No. 20 in the FedExCup
- Matt Fitzpatrick (T5) records 10th top-10 of the season to tie Patrick Cantlay for most top-10s this season
- Prior to the start of the final round, Cameron Smith (T13) was assessed a two-stroke penalty for a breach of Rule 14.7 (playing ball from the wrong place) on hole No. 4 during the third round as he was operating under Rule 17.1 (when ball is in penalty area). Smith’s score was adjusted from 199 (-11) to 201 (-9). Smith finished T13 in his first start since winning The Open Championship, his third win of the season
