TOURNAMENT STORYLINES

Back to the Bahamas: The Hero World Challenge, an unofficial PGA TOUR event played annually following the fall portion of the FedExCup Regular Season schedule, returns to Albany in the Bahamas after being canceled in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Albany is hosting the event for the sixth consecutive time, with past hosts including Grayhawk Golf Club (2000), Sherwood Country Club (2000-2013) and Isleworth (2014). Henrik Stenson is in the field as defending champion after winning in 2019.

Tournament host Tiger Woods: Tiger Woods, who serves as tournament host, will not compete at the Hero World Challenge as he continues to recover from injuries suffered in his February car accident. Woods has won the tournament five times (all at Sherwood), most recently winning in 2011. He finished solo-fourth in 2019, the last time the event was played.

Field grows to 20: Traditionally played with 18 players, the Hero World Challenge announced in August that the tournament field would permanently expand to 20. The 2021 field includes 17 players ranked inside the top 25 of the Official World Golf Ranking, highlighted by No. 2 Collin Morikawa and No. 4 Xander Schauffele.

Chasing World No. 1: Collin Morikawa, who is making his first competitive start since winning the Race to Dubai on the DP World Tour, can move to No. 1 in the Official World Golf Ranking for the first time in his career with a win at Albany. The 24-year-old, who is making his first start in the Hero World Challenge, has five wins on the PGA TOUR, including two major championship titles (2020 PGA Championship, 2021 Open Championship).

Eight new faces: Among the 20 players in the field, only 12 have previously competed at the Hero World Challenge. The eight first-timers have combined to win 13 times on the PGA TOUR since the last time the tournament was played.

First-timers (wins since 2019 Hero World Challenge)

Abraham Ancer (1)	Harris English (2)	Tyrrell Hatton (1)	Collin Morikawa (4)
Sam Burns (2)	Matt Fitzpatrick	Viktor Hovland (3)	Scottie Scheffler

FEDEXCUP and SEASON STORYLINES

Last time out: Talor Gooch won The RSM Classic, earning his first career PGA TOUR victory in his 104th start. With three top-fives and two T11s in six starts this season, Gooch has earned 852 FedExCup points, more than he earned in any of his first four seasons on the PGA TOUR. Gooch's top results this season aside from the win have come at the Fortinet Championship (T4) and THE CJ CUP @ SUMMIT (T5).

FedExCup No. 1: With his win at The RSM Classic, Talor Gooch moved to No. 1 in the FedExCup standings for the first time in his career. Gooch is the third player to hold the No. 1 position this season (Max Homa/2 weeks, Sam Burns/7 weeks) and the 71st player all-time to be the FedExCup leader.

Top players taking the title: Through nine events on the PGA TOUR schedule in 2021-22, every tournament has been won by a player that entered the week in the top 60 of the Official World Golf Ranking. For reference, in the 12 events played in the fall portion of the 2020-21 season, there were only six such winners, and five of those 12 tournaments were won by players outside the top 300 in the OWGR.
