Things to Know

- Justin Thomas, the son and grandson of a PGA Professional, defeats Will Zalatoris in a 3-hole aggregate playoff to win the PGA Championship for the second time (2017, 2022); becomes the 22nd multiple winner of the event
- Thomas comes from seven strokes back to tie the PGA Championship record for largest final-round comeback
- Thomas' win is the largest comeback win since Justin Rose came from eight back at the 2017 WGC-HSBC Champions
- Thomas has now won in seven straight seasons on the PGA TOUR (will become the TOUR's longest streak if Dustin Johnson does not win this season)
- Thomas wins the first playoff at the PGA Championship since 2011 (Keegan Bradley over Jason Dufner)
- Thomas wins the fifth 3-hole aggregate playoff in PGA Championship history; is the first to birdie the first two holes
- Thomas wins the first playoff in a major championship since the 2017 Masters (Sergio Garcia over Justin Rose)
- Thomas becomes the seventh-consecutive American winner of the PGA Championship
- 36-hole leader Zalatoris finishes runner-up for the third time in 48 TOUR starts; picks up fifth top-10 finish in last seven major starts
- 54-hole leader Mito Pereira makes double bogey on No. 18 to finish T3; records best finish by a Chilean at a major
- This year marks the first time in eight major championships contested at Southern Hills that the 36-hole and 54-hole leader/co-leader failed to win
- Cameron Young picks up his fifth top-3 finish of the season, tied with Scottie Scheffler for most on TOUR
