Today – Early morning thunderstorms should move east by 6:30AM with lingering showers possible through 8AM. There will likely be a lull in the precipitation the rest of the morning before scattered showers redevelop for the afternoon, before pushing east of Tulsa late in the day. Temperatures are currently in the upper 50s and will likely remain in the mid to upper 50s for the rest of the day. A northerly breeze of 12-18 gusting to 25-30 mph will make it feel cooler as well.
