Miscellaneous notes

- 2019 Wells Fargo Championship winner Max Homa (2nd/-7) followed an eagle at his first hole of the day, the par-5 10th, with five birdies and three bogeys, good for a 4-under 66 and 105 feet, 10 inches of total made putts; claimed his most recent of three PGA TOUR titles at this season's first event, the Fortinet Championship

- Rockville, Maryland native Denny McCarthy (T3/-6) followed an opening-round 5-under 65 with a 1-under 69; T3 marks his best 36-hole position in 125 PGA TOUR starts; remains in search of his first career PGA TOUR title
- 2016 Wells Fargo Championship winner James Hahn (T3/-6) made 16 pars and two birdies, good for a 2-under 68; comes off missed cuts in four of his last five starts in individual stroke-play events
- Making his seventh start in the Wells Fargo Championship, Luke List (T3/-6) carded a 4-under 66 in his bid for a third top-10 finish in the event and second in as many seasons (T6/2021, T9/2018); looks to become the fifth multiple winner of the 2021-22 season (Farmers Insurance Open)
- Coming off a T2 finish at last week's Mexico Open at Vidanta, first year PGA TOUR Member Kurt Kitayama (T3/-6) made six birdies on his inward nine (Nos. 1-9), and eight overall (one shy of his career-most from round one last week); first top-5 finish of the season, third, came at The Honda Classic
- Keegan Bradley (T7/-5) carded the round of the day with a 5-under 65; his Strokes Gained: Total of 7.575 is his highest in a round since the 2018 FedEx St. Jude Championship (7.825/R3)
- Defending champion and three-time Wells Fargo Championship winner Rory McIlroy shot a 3-over 73 to make the cut on the number of even-par 140
- Nate Lashley withdrew during the second round due to a toe injury
