Extended Forecast – Friday’s second round will feature sunny skies and some high clouds streaming in late day. After a chilly start in the middle 40’s, temperatures warm to near 71F with light northerly winds. The weekend will have abundant sunshine in place and slightly warmer conditions with highs in the lower to middle 70’s and continued cool mornings. Another day of light and variable winds can be expected on Saturday before winds increase for Sunday’s final round, turning west-southwest at 6-12 mph.
