STORYLINES - CHUBB CLASSIC

Tournament Preview: PGA TOUR Champions kicks off its first mainland event of the 2022 season with the Chubb Classic presented by SERVPRO in Naples, Florida. Tiburon Golf Club's Black Course will serve as host of the 35th annual event, which is the longest-running tournament in the same city on the PGA TOUR Champions schedule. Three-time tournament champion and six-time Charles Schwab Cup winner Bernhard Langer is in the field, as well as 2019 champion Miguel Angel Jimenez, who captured his 11th Champions Tour title last month at the season-opening Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai in Hawaii.

Rookie Debuts: Two former PGA TOUR winners will make their Champions Tour debuts this week -- Brian Gay and Y.E. Yang. Gay, who turned 50 on December 14, is a five-time PGA TOUR winner including the 2020 Butterfield Bermuda Championship where he snapped a winless streak of over seven years to capture his fifth title just six weeks shy of his 49th birthday. South Korean native Yang turned 50 on January 15 and has two PGA TOUR titles, including the 2009 PGA Championship where he came from behind to beat runner-up Tiger Woods by three strokes.

First-Timers: In addition to Gay and Yang, several players will be making their first appearance at the Chubb Classic including fellow 2022 rookie and former World No. 1 David Duval, who finished T34 in his debut last month in Hawaii, and three-time major champion Pdraig Harrington, who is making his third Champions Tour start. All five Q-School graduates are in the field including medalist Rob Labritz, who is making his first career start on the over-50 circuit, as well as fellow Chubb Classic newcomers David Branshaw, Thongchai Jaidee and Roger Rowland.

Players to Watch: Last season's PGA TOUR Champions Rookie of the Year Jim Furyk will be making his tournament debut this week after finishing T8 last month in Hawaii. Making his second appearance at the Chubb Classic, Ernie Els finished T6 at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai in his 2022 season debut last month.
