Extended forecast – Friday, largely dry weather remains, but a sea breeze pushing through the area in the afternoon will bring an isolated shower/t-storm chance after 2pm. Easterly winds through Friday morning will turn west after 3pm behind the sea breeze. Saturday, an isolated shower/t-storm threat remains, mainly for the afternoon, and winds will turn westerly with gusts up to 18-22 mph. Sunday, slightly drier air moves in, but an isolated shower/t-storm still cannot be ruled out. Winds on Sunday will be northeasterly in the morning, turning more north to northwest in the afternoon.
