Second-Round Lead Notes

- Troy Merritt (2018) and Jim Herman (2019) are the only second-round leaders/co-leaders to win the Barbasol Championship
- 10 second-round leaders/co-leaders have won in individual stroke-play events on TOUR this season (most recent: Keegan Bradley/Travelers Championship)
- Five of the seven winners of this event were inside the top five on the leaderboard after the second round

Lucas Glover (1st/-13)

- With 11-under 131, equals his fifth-best opening 36-hole score on TOUR; last time he shot 131 in his opening 36 holes he won (2021 John Deere Classic)
- Records his 10th straight round in the 60s, leading to back-to-back top-10 finishes at the Rocket Mortgage Classic (T4) and John Deere Classic (T6)
- Closed his round with a birdie putt from 34 feet, 9 inches after making just two other putts over five feet in the second round (6' 2"/No. 14, 5' 1"/No. 7)
- Holds the 36-hole lead/co-lead for the ninth time in individual stroke-play events on TOUR, with his most recent coming at the 2019 Shriners Children's Open (finished T9); 0-for-8 to date converting to victory
- Currently No. 110 in the FedExCup standings as he seeks to advance to the FedExCup Playoffs for the fifth straight season (top 70 players following the Wyndham Championship advance to the Playoffs)
- Would join Scott Piercy (2015), Grayson Murray (2017) and Jim Herman (2019) as winners in their debut appearance at this event

Additional Player Notes

- Among the players at T9 or better on the leaderboard, seven countries are represented: United States, Sweden, England, France, South Africa, Spain and Canada
- Making his tournament debut, 2019 America Express winner Adam Long (T2/-11) seeks his second PGA TOUR victory in his 140th TOUR; last time he opened with back-to-back rounds in the 60s was the 2022 Butterfield Bermuda Championship, eventually finishing T44; comes into this week off three consecutive missed cuts while posting par-or-better scores in each round of those three events
- A top-10 finish would give PGA TOUR rookie Vincent Norrman (T2/-11) his third top-10 finish this season (T9/Zurich Classic of New Orleans with Matthias Schwab as teammate, T8/AT&T Byron Nelson)
- England's Daniel Brown (T2/-11), making his PGA TOUR debut, played his first DP World Tour event in 2015 (MC/KLM Open); finished third at the 2022 DP World Tour qualifying tournament, posting all six rounds in the 60s; in his first full season this year, made the cut in his first 10 starts (three of the 10 were co-sanctioned DP World Tour events), then missed the cut in three consecutive starts before posting T17 at last week's Made in Himmerland

- South African Jayden Schaper's (T5/-10) lone top-10 in his rookie season on the DP World Tour this year is T7 at the Magical Kenya Open
- Ryan Moore (T5/-10) is making his 142nd start since winning the last of his five PGA TOUR titles at the 2016 John Deere Classic; advanced to the FedExCup Playoffs 14 consecutive seasons (2007-2020), but has not advanced since
- Frenchman Adrien Saddier's (T5/-10) lone professional victory was at the Challenge Tour's 2016 Fred Olsen Challenge de Espana with rounds of 61-65-71-63—260 (-24)
- South African Louis de Jager's (T5/-10) T2 at the 2019 Magical Kenya Open marks his best finish among seven top-10 results in more than 80 starts on the DP World Tour
- Taylor Pendrith (T9/-9) looks to become the fifth different Canadian to win on TOUR this season (Mackenzie Hughes, Adam Svensson, Corey Connors, Nick Taylor)
- Barbasol ambassador Ryan Armour (T9/-9) records his 19th straight par-or-better round at the event, dating to a final-round 67 at Grand National in 2015
- Sitting T99 after an opening-round 72, Frenchman David Ravetto (T14/-8) posts four birdies and two eagles, at hole Nos. 5 and 15, for the low round of the day (64) on Bastille Day to climb 85 spots up the leaderboard
- Sweden's Marcus Kinhult (T14/-8) makes his first bogey of the week at his 35th hole before adding another at his closing hole
- Lefthanded amateur David Ford (T30/-6) makes the cut in his PGA TOUR debut; in June, was one of the first three players named as members of the 2023 Walker Cup team with Gordon Sargent and Michael Thorbjornsen, to represent the United States at the Old Course at St. Andrews in September
- Monday qualifier Chris Nido (T41/-5) fires bogey-free 65 to make the cut
- Local favorites Josh Teater and Chip McDaniel both miss the cut, Teater for the first time in six starts at the Barbasol Championship
- The ball was played as it lies in the second round and the scoring average was 71.123, the highest scoring average in tournament history
