

This week on the PGA TOUR: Charles Schwab Challenge at Colonial Country Club

Aon Insight

At more than 630 yards on the scorecard, the 11th at Colonial was the sixth-longest hole on the PGA Tour a season ago. Favoring the left side with the drive opens the door to potentially reach this green in two: players in the left intermediate cut are able to go for the green far more often (31%) than from the right intermediate (6%). Each of the previous three winners at Colonial hit their drive on the 11th to the left side of the hole in all four rounds.

The Aon Risk Reward Challenge is a season-long competition on the PGA TOUR and LPGA Tour testing the abilities of the world's best players to make thoughtful, strategic decisions on the most challenging holes ("Aon Risk Reward Challenge holes") throughout the year

At the end of the regular season, the most consistent player across each tour, with the lowest average score under par, on the Aon Risk Reward Challenge holes captures the $1 million prize.

Aon is committed to a diverse workforce and an inclusive culture where everyone can thrive, ensuring delivery of the best innovative solutions for clients. As such, providing equal prize money to both the PGA and LPGA Tours aligns with Aon's core values and brand.

Aon's Risk Reward Challenge Scoring

One hole is selected at each tournament as the designated Aon Risk Reward Challenge hole for the week (hole is strategically challenging in nature)

For every participating event, a player's best two scores on the designated hole counts towards the season-long leaderboard
