Presidents Cup History

The 14th Presidents Cup will be contested at Quail Hollow Club in Charlotte, North Carolina, bringing the biennial event to the Southeastern United States for the first time in its 25-year history. Both captains will make their debuts, with Trevor Immelman set to lead the International Team and Davis Love III leading the U.S. Team in their attempt to retain the Cup.

1994 – The 1994 Presidents Cup was the first in the event's illustrious history. Robert Trent Jones Golf Club in Prince William County, Virginia, USA, welcomed the 38th President of the United States, Gerald R. Ford, as Honorary Chairman, and World Golf Hall of Fame members Hale Irwin (United States Team) and David Graham (International Team) as team captains. The U.S. Team was the first to etch its name onto the cup after winning the inaugural event, 20-12.

1996 – The 1996 Presidents Cup reigned as the closest score – aside from 2003's tie – until 2015. With Arnold Palmer at the helm, the United States Team edged Peter Thomson's International Team 16.5-15.5 at the Robert Trent Jones Golf Club in Prince William County, Virginia, USA. The Honorary Chairman for the event was the 41st United States President, George H.W. Bush.

1998 – The 1998 Presidents Cup was one of victory for the International Team under the direction of Peter Thomson. For the first time in the event's history, the Internationals defeated the United States Team and Jack Nicklaus, who was serving as captain for the first of four terms, 20.5 to 11.5 in the second-largest margin of victory in the cup's history. The Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia, hosted the event for the first time, and Prime Minister of Australia John Howard was appointed the Honorary Chairman.

2000 – The 2000 Presidents Cup was the end of an era for the International Team as they followed the leadership of three-time captain Peter Thomson for the final time. Ken Venturi led the U.S. Team in the event held at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club in Prince William County, Virginia, USA. The 42nd President of the United States, William Jefferson Clinton, acted as the Honorary Chairman for the event, which crowned the U.S. Team victors in decisive fashion, 21.5-10.5.

2003 – The 2003 Presidents Cup ventured to George, South Africa, for the first time, fittingly, as the nation is home to Gary Player, who led the International Team for the first time that year in a contest against Jack Nicklaus' United States Team. The host venue, The Links at Fancourt Hotel and Country Club Estate, witnessed the first tie in Presidents Cup history, and the Republic of South Africa President Thabo Mbeki served as the Honorary Chairman.

2005 – The 2005 Presidents Cup crowned a Jack Nicklaus-led United States Team champions with an 18.5-15.5 decision over a Gary Player-led International Team. Robert Trent Jones Golf Club in Prince William County, Virginia, USA, hosted the event for the fourth time in the competition's history and the 43rd President of the United States, George W. Bush, acted as the Honorary Chairman.

2007 – The 2007 Presidents Cup marked the third and final time legendary captains Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player would lead the U.S. and International Teams, respectively. The Prime Minister of Canada Stephen Harper served as the Honorary Chairman for the event held in Montreal, Quebec, Canada, at The Royal Montreal Golf Club. In the end, the United States would retain the cup after a 19.5-14.5 score, but Canadian hero Mike Weir sent his local supporters home happy with a 1-up Singles victory over Tiger Woods.

2009 – The 2009 Presidents Cup showcased a U.S. Team led by Fred Couples defeating the International Team captained by Greg Norman, with Tiger Woods having one of the most memorable appearances in tournament history with a 5-0-0 record and leading the U.S. Team to victory by a margin of 19.5-14.5. The Cup was contested at TPC Harding Park in San Francisco, California and welcomed the 44th President of the United States, Barack Obama as the Honorary Chairman.

2011 – In 2011, the Presidents Cup descended upon The Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia, for the second time in the event's history, offering a 2009 rematch of the U.S. Team's Captain Fred Couples against an International Team once again led by Greg Norman. Ultimately, the U.S. Team retained the Cup with a wire-to-wire 19-15 decision with Jim Furyk delivering a perfect 5-0-0 record to solidify the finish. Prime Minister of Australia, Julia Gillard, served as Honorary Chairwoman, marking the first time in event history a woman held the role.

2013 – The 2013 Presidents Cup welcomed the 44th U.S. President Barack Obama as Honorary Chairman of the event for a second time, the only world leader to hold that distinction more than once. The event teed off at Muirfield Village Golf Club in Dublin, Columbus, Ohio. Fred Couples and Nick Price assumed captains' duties for the U.S. Team and the International Team, respectively. In the end, it was the U.S. Team's Cup to keep after a decisive 18.5-15.5 victory, with Tiger Woods earning the deciding point for the United States for the third consecutive time.

Presidents Cup History

2015 – The 2015 Presidents Cup was contested in Songdo, IBD, Incheon City, South Korea, at Jack Nicklaus Golf Club Korea, marking the event's first trip to South Korea. The U.S. Team was led by Jay Haas and at the helm of the International Team was two-time captain Nick Price. The U.S. Team clinched the final point on the final hole to win 15.5-14.5. The Honorary Chairwoman of the event was Korean President Park Guen-Hye.

2017 – For the first time in the event's history, three former United States presidents and the current U.S. president were on site for the 2017 Presidents Cup, held at Liberty National Golf Club in Jersey City, New Jersey. The International Team welcomed Captain Nick Price back for a third term, while the U.S. Team was led by Steve Stricker. Following the four-day competition on the banks of the Hudson River, the U.S. Team delivered a decisive victory by a 19-11 margin.

2019 – The magic in Melbourne inspired what could be considered as the most exciting Presidents Cup in history at The Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia. In an historic effort, Captain Ernie Els led the Internationals to the lead after round one by a 4-1 margin. After fighting back through the next three sessions, the Captain Tiger Woods-led United States Team edged the Internationals in a dramatic Sunday singles comeback, winning eight of the 12 available points to retain the Cup.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

INTERNATIONAL TEAM

- The 2022 Presidents Cup International Team qualification period ran from the 2021 Open Championship through the 2022 BMW Championship. The Team was comprised of the top eight (8) players from the Presidents Cup International Team Points List, followed by four (4) selections made by Captain Immelman on Sept. 6, 2022. Captain Immelman received two additional picks based on ineligible automatic qualifiers.
- The International Team Points System operates similarly to that of the Official World Golf Ranking, except it uses a proprietary calculation to determine field strength and the quantity of points awarded per event. While Major Championship winners will receive 100 points and PLAYERS Championship winners will receive 80, there are no other alternative minimum event points.
- International Team Points earned from the 2022 PGA Championship through the 2022 BMW Championship are given a 25% premium. The ranking is determined by the average points awarded in the qualifying period.

Presidents Cup Fact Sheet

U.S. TEAM

- The top six (6) U.S. PGA TOUR members who earn the most FedExCup points from the 2019 A Military Tribute at the Greenbrier through the 2022 BMW Championship, weighted as follows:
 - 2019 A Military Tribute at the Greenbrier through 2020 BMW Championship:
 - 1 FedExCup point = 0.5 point
 - 2020 Fortinet Championship through 2021 BMW Championship:
 - 1 FedExCup point = 1 points
 - 2021 Fortinet Championship through 2022 BMW Championship:
 - 1 FedExCup point = 3 points
- Six (6) captain's selections, named on Sept. 7, 2022

NOTE: Presidents Cup points for FedExCup Playoffs Events will be weighted the same as World Golf Championships.

FORMAT:

Presidents Cup competition consists of 30 matches. Host Team Captain Love chose to begin with Foursomes for Thursday's matches. The following segments will then alternate accordingly, with 12 Singles matches played Sunday.

Thursday: 5 Foursomes Matches

Friday: 5 Four-ball Matches

Saturday Morning: 4 Foursomes Matches

Saturday Afternoon: 4 Four-ball Matches

Sunday: 12 Singles Matches

All matches are worth one point each, for a total of 30 points. There are no playoffs, with each side receiving a half point if a match is tied after 18 holes. In a change inspired by the events of the 2003 Presidents Cup, if the competition is deadlocked at the end of Singles play the competition will be deemed a tie and the teams will share the Presidents Cup.

Format Change: In 2019, a minor format change was implemented, stating each player shall only be required to play a minimum of one match prior to the Sunday Singles matches. This was a change from previous years when players were required to compete in two matches prior to Singles matches.

PURSE:

Unlike many other events, the players do not receive prize money based on performance. Instead, the PGA TOUR pledges to contribute to charities, which are nominated by players, captains and captains' assistants from both teams.

IMPACT:

Since the inception of the Presidents Cup in 1994, more than $54.4 million has been generated from event proceeds. Over the past 25 years, the Presidents Cup has impacted more than 460 charities in 18 countries worldwide.

CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS

1994 – US $750,000 | 1996 – US $800,000 | 1998 – US $2.9 million | 2000 – US $2.8 million | 2003 US $2.8 million
| 2005 – US $3.5 million | 2007 – US $4.2 million | 2009 – US $4.2 million | 2011 – US $4.5 million | 2013 – US
$4.65 million | 2015 – US $6.1 million | 2017 – US $10.7 million | 2019 – U.S. $5.3 million

TROPHY:

Created by Tiffany & Company, the Presidents Cup trophy weighs a total of 28 pounds. The trophy is spun by a spinner from five sterling silver circles into five different shapes. The spun components then are put together by a silversmith to create the cup. The smith runs a roller die to create the beaded embellishment that goes around the cup and the foot of the trophy. The oval logo is etched and applied to the cup. Labor dedicated to creating the trophy totaled 80 hours. The entire trophy is vermeil in 24-carat gold, and the original trophy is housed at the PGA TOUR's Global Headquarters in Ponte Vedra Beach, Florida.

CAPTAIN,
UNITED STATES TEAM

Davis Love III is the ninth player to lead the United States Presidents Cup Team, with his selection for the 2022 Presidents Cup taking on added meaning for the Charlotte native and University of North Carolina product.

Love represented the United States in the Presidents Cup six times in his career, including the inaugural event in 1994, where he compiled a 4-0-1 record while leading the U.S. Team to a 20-12 victory over the International Team. He served as an assistant captain in the 2013, 2015 and 2017 Presidents Cups, while also guiding the United States as captain in the 2012 and 2016 Ryder Cups. Love holds a 16-8-4 all-time record in Presidents Cup play, while accounting for 18 points in 28 total matches played.

Love, the son of legendary instructor Davis Love, Jr., was born in Charlotte before the family moved to suburban Atlanta later that same year. They eventually settled into Georgia's Golden Isles, where Love spent his youth before attending the University of North Carolina – Chapel Hill, where he was a three-time All-America selection and winner of six collegiate titles, including the 1984 ACC Championship.

Quail Hollow Club – Hole-by-Hole

No. 1

A par 5 for member play, this opener plays as a long par 4 for championships. A left to right tee shot is guarded by two bunkers down the left side of the fairway. The green is narrow, undulating and protected by three large bunkers.

A hard dogleg left with a left to right camber in the fairway makes this one of the most difficult fairways to hit on the course. The second shot plays uphill to a green that slopes off dramatically to right side into a closely mown area 6-8 feet below the putting surface. The green slopes severely from back to front making putts from above the hole very slick.

No. 3

The number one handicap hole on the course and it is a well-earned position. This long, straight par 4 is protected off of the tee with a deep bunker down the right side of the fairway. A raised two tier green guarded by three bunkers is very difficult to get close to hole locations with a long iron.

No. 4

This par-3 is framed beautifully by a group of tall pines, with a large undulating green fronted by three bunkers. Shots that fly long will end up below the green surface resulting in a difficult up and down.

No. 5

The fifth hole plays down and back up a shallow valley to a green that sits on a hillside behind the sixth tee. This slight dogleg right requires a well-placed tee shot to find a fairway protected by bunkers on either side. On their approach, players will face a narrow green that is well-guarded by a front right bunker.

No. 6

This is the longest par 3 on the course and plays downhill. A false front in the front center of the green rejects quality shots and makes for difficult pitches. The green is severely sloped from back to front and players do not want to go long of this green complex.

No. 7

This is the shortest par 5 on the course and presents players with a wonderful opportunity for scoring. It is a tight driving hole and tee shots must navigate bunkers on the left, plus a creek that runs down the entire right side. The sloped green is tucked behind water and is surrounded by bunkers, making this hole the epitome of a risk reward par 5.

No. 8

This short par 4 gives players options off the tee. Two bunkers down the left side of the fairway starting at 250 yards from the tee cause trouble for the longer players attempting to drive the green. The shallow green has 5 distinct sections requiring a precise second shot to get the ball close to the hole.

No. 9

This demanding hole favors a left-to-right tee shot. The fairway is narrow with trees guarding both sides. The severely sloping green features a large ridge separating the green into front and back sections. Hole locations on the back tier are some of the most difficult on the course. The false front can push second shots some 10 yards short of the green.

No. 10

This long par 3 is guarded by the most severe false front on the course. Shots not reaching the putting surface can move down the fairway 20 yards short of the green. The front right of the green also features a closely mown area that can leave a player 5 feet below the surface. The green is dramatically pitched from back to front and has one low point on the right side that collects shots and moves them off into the closely mown area.

No. 11

The shortest par 4 on the course presents players with two options. The layup area is protected by water down the left and a deep bunker also down the left. A precise second shot is required to this long narrow green. If players choose to go for the green off the tee, a right to left slope in the fairway assists balls with the correct shape to get on to the putting surface. The green is protected with water on the left, two bunkers and a closely mown area to the front right of the green. Any shot missing the green to the left will likely run all the way into the water.

No. 12

This par 5 is open off the tee but favors a right to left flight down the left side. The second shot plays uphill and the fairway is protected with a bunker down the left side in the layup zone. The green is pitched back to front and has a spine bisecting the front section making a front left and a front right sections. The front of the green features a large bunker in the center and closely mown areas to the right and front left.

This demanding tee shot favors a left to right ball flight and the fairway is guarded with 1 bunker down the right side and a steep hill leading to water down the left. The second shot plays downhill to a large peninsula green with a bunker on the ride side and water on the left and long.

No. 14

This treacherous par 3 plays slightly down hill and features water in front and down the entire left side of the green. The bail out area to the right is closely mown and leaves an uphill pitch shot to a green sloping away from the player running towards the water. The green has a central ridge splitting the green into front and back sections. The rear section pitches towards the back of the green forcing a precise tee shot to hold the putting surface.

Quail Hollow Club – Hole-by-Hole

No. 15

This par 4 is one of the most difficult on the course. The tee shot plays downhill and has a bunker on the right side. A creek runs down the left side of the fairway all the way to the green. The second shot plays slightly uphill and the green is guarded by two right bunkers and the creek on the left. The green features a false front and a central ridge dividing the green into two sections.

No. 16

The longest par 5 on the course favors a right to left tee shot. The fairway has a large left bunker off the tee and another large bunker 50 yards short of the green. The closely mown area on the front right of the green is one of the most severe and challenging on the course. The back half of the green runs away from the approach and makes rear hole locations very tricky.

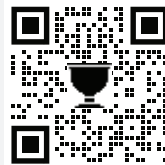

No. 17

This dogleg left par 4 has two deep bunkers in the landing area down the left side of the fairway. The second plays uphill to a raised green with two bunkers guarding the left side. The green complex features a false front and a central ridge. The back half of the greens slopes away from the approach shot.

No. 18

This long par 4 favors a right to left tee shot. The fairway is protected with a large bunker on the right side and tall pine trees down the left. The second shot plays to a green with a front left bunker and a large right bunker. The green complex is pitched from back to front and has very subtle features.
