Things to Know

- Nick Taylor of Abbotsford, British Columbia defeats England’s Tommy Fleetwood in a four-hole playoff to become the first Canadian to win the RBC Canadian Open since 1954
- Taylor won the playoff with a 72-foot, 6-inch putt for eagle (longer than any putt in his TOUR career) and is the first player to win a playoff with an eagle since Hideki Matsuyama at the 2022 Sony Open in Hawaii
- Taylor becomes the fifth Canadian with three or more wins on the PGA TOUR
- Taylor is the fourth player from Canada to win on TOUR this season, the most in a single season on record (since 1983)
- With a first-round 75 and position of T120, Taylor is the second player on TOUR since 1983 to stand T120 or worse after the first round and go on to win
- Fleetwood records his fifth career runner-up on TOUR in his 119th start

Playoff Notes

- Each making their first playoff appearance, Taylor defeated Fleetwood with an eagle-3 on the fourth playoff hole
- Taylor is the first player to win a playoff with an eagle since Hideki Matsuyama at the 2022 Sony Open in Hawaii
- Marks the longest playoff on TOUR since the 2021 BMW Championship (six holes) and the longest in the event since 1983 (John Cook defeated Johnny Miller with a birdie on the sixth playoff hole)
- 21st playoff in tournament history and sixth playoff of the 2022-23 PGA TOUR Season
