

This week on the PGA TOUR: Travelers Championship at TPC River Highlands

Aon Insight

At just 296 yards on the scorecard, the 15th at TPC River Highlands was the shortest par 4 on the PGA TOUR all of last season. With virtually the entire field going for this green, knowing where the better location to miss is can be key. Players who go for the green with the tee shot and miss long gain about two-tenths of a stroke over those who leave it short. It's also about 10% more likely you'll make birdie when missing long here at the 15th.

About Aon

Aon is a leading global professional services firm providing a broad range of risk, retirement and health solutions. Our 50,000 colleagues in 120 countries empower results for clients by using proprietary data and analytics to deliver insights that reduce volatility and improve performance.

Aon's golf partnerships are anchored by a clear narrative – insight derived from data and delivered by experts – our sports partnerships allow us to connect authentically with our clients and colleagues around their passion points.

In addition to partnerships with the PGA TOUR and LPGA Tour, Aon is a worldwide partner of the Ryder Cup in 2021, 2023 and 2025.

What is the Aon Risk Reward Challenge?

The Aon Risk Reward Challenge is a season-long competition on the PGA TOUR and LPGA Tour testing the abilities of the world's best players to make thoughtful, strategic decisions on the most challenging holes ("Aon Risk Reward Challenge holes") throughout the year

At the end of the regular season, the most consistent player across each tour, with the lowest average score under par, on the Aon Risk Reward Challenge holes captures the $1 million prize.

Aon is committed to a diverse workforce and an inclusive culture where everyone can thrive, ensuring delivery of the best innovative solutions for clients. As such, providing equal prize money to both the PGA TOUR and LPGA Tour aligns with Aon's core values and brand.

Aon's Risk Reward Challenge Scoring

One hole is selected at each tournament as the designated Aon Risk Reward Challenge hole for the week (hole is strategically challenging in nature)

For every participating event, a player's best two scores on the designated hole counts towards the season-long leaderboard

The player with lowest average score under par across the regular season wins the Aon Risk Reward Challenge
