Things to Know

- Charles Schwab Cup leader and American Family Insurance Championship Tournament Host Steve Stricker sits T1 with Paul Broadhurst and improves on his opening-round with a bogey-free 8-under 64 (129) in his bid for a third win in his most recent four starts
- Paul Broadhurst's 15-under total through 36 holes supplants his previous-best opening-36-hole score on PGA TOUR Champions of 12-under 132 from the 2017 American Family Insurance Championship
- Following his 10-under 62 in round one, Justin Leonard posted 3-under 69 and sits solo third heading into the final round
- Making his first start in the American Family Insurance Championship, last season's Charles Schwab Cup champion Steven Alker carded 4-under 68 (T4)
- Following seven pars to start his round, Joe Durant records seven birdies on his next nine holes, including five straight on Nos. 10-14, en route to a bogey-free 7-under 65
- Miguel Angel Jimenez becomes the first player on PGA TOUR Champions since 2016 to record three eagles in one round; signs for 8-under 64

Steve Stricker (T1/-15)

- After setting the all-time record among all PGA TOUR-sanctioned Tours for most consecutive rounds of par or better (53) in round one (7-under 65), Stricker improved with a bogey-free 8-under 64 in round two to post a share of the round of the day; Paul Broadhurst and Miguel Angel Jimenez also carded 8-under
- His 15-under total falls one stroke shy of his best first 36-hole score for the season (16-under/Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai)
- With today's round of 64, Stricker moves to a collective 228-under par (129) within those 54 rounds
- Stricker is 4-for-8 when attempting to convert a 36-hole lead/co-lead into victory in 54-hole events on PGA TOUR Champions

- Highlighted by three wins, Stricker has finished no worse than T8 (Cologuard Classic) in 10 starts this season
- In his last three starts prior to this week, Stricker won two PGA TOUR Champions majors (Regions Tradition, KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship) and finished T2 at last week's Principal Charity Classic
- Stricker is in search of his 15th title on PGA TOUR Champions in his 58th start this week
- Stricker is making his sixth American Family Insurance Championship start, with just one finish outside the top 10:

Year	Finish	Scores
2022	T11	71-69-67—207 (-9)
2021	T7	70-72-65—207 (-9)
2019	T2	67-67-67—201 (-15)
2018	T3	64-74-65—203 (-13)
2017	T3	66-69-69—204 (-12)

Paul Broadhurst (T1/-15)

- Seeking a second consecutive top-10 finish (7th/2022), and third overall (5th/2017), Broadhurst followed his opening-round 7-under 65 with an 8-under 64 in round two to post a share of the round of the day
- Broadhurst offset one bogey (par-5 second) with nine birdies to reach the 8-under total for the day
- In five previous American Family Insurance Championship starts, finished inside the top 10 in his first start of 2017 (5th) and most recent start (7th/2022)
- On the only other occasion to hold at least a share of a 36-hole lead in a 54-hole PGA TOUR Champions event, finished fifth at this event in 2015
- Broadhurst's best of two top-10 finishes this season was T5 at the Regions Tradition
- Broadhurst seeks his sixth career PGA TOUR Champions title and first since 2018

Additional Player Notes

- Following his tournament record 10-under 62 in round one, Justin Leonard signed for a 3-under 69 in round two; best of three top-10 finishes was T6 at the Chubb Classic earlier this season
- At 11-under 133 (T4) Steven Alker the reigning Charles Schwab Cup Champion seeks a second win this season (Insperity Invitational) and sixth top-10 finish; in his most recent start before this week, claimed T5 honors at the KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship
- Beginning on No. 10, Miguel Angel Jimenez coupled two eagles at Nos. 11 and 16 with birdies at 13, 15 and 18 to make the turn in 7-under 29; he continued with a third eagle at the par-5 second hole to move to -10 through 12 holes before finishing with an 8-under 64; Jimenez becomes the first player on PGA TOUR Champions since 2016 to record three eagles in a round
- Defending champion Thongchai Jaidee sits T64 at 1-over 145
- On his way to an even-par 72 in round two, Lee Janzen (T46/-1) aced the 192-yard par-3 17th using an 8-iron (his eighth hole of the day)
