On behalf of PGA TOUR Champions, it's a pleasure to welcome you to the 2023 Shaw Charity Classic presented by Rogers. Following last year's 10-year anniversary celebration, we are just as excited to return to Canyon Meadows Golf and Country Club for the 2023 edition of what is one of our premier tournaments.

Every year, our players look forward to the opportunity to compete in Calgary and showcase PGA TOUR Champions on an international stage. Since its 2013 inception, the Shaw Charity Classic has produced an outstanding lineup of champions in Rocco Mediate (2013), Fred Couples (2014), Jeff Maggert (2015), Carlos Franco (2016), Scott McCarron (2017, 2018), Wes Short Jr. (2019), Doug Barron (2021) and last year's winner, Jerry Kelly.

The Shaw Charity Classic is the 19th of 28 tournaments in the 2023 PGA TOUR Champions season and will again feature prominently in the upcoming Charles Schwab Cup Playoffs. After the conclusion of the regular season, 72 players will qualify for the three-tournament Playoffs series to determine the winner of the 2023 Charles Schwab Cup.

With charity at the heart of every PGA TOUR Champions, PGA TOUR and the Korn Ferry Tour event, I'm proud of the Shaw Charity Classic for its significant economic and charitable impact in the Calgary community. I know this year's event will build upon the tournament's previous successes.

We greatly value our partnership with Shaw, as well as presenting sponsor, Rogers, for their commitment to PGA TOUR Champions. We also appreciate the spectators, volunteers, media and the Canyon Meadows members and staff for their dedication to making this tournament a huge success.

Thank you for your support of PGA TOUR Champions and enjoy a great week.

Sincerely,

Miller Brady

President

PGA TOUR Champions

WELCOME FROM PGA TOUR CHAMPIONS

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to the 11th anniversary of the Shaw Charity Classic presented by Rogers in Calgary.

Canada's lone stop on the PGA TOUR Champions was created in 2013 with a clear vision in mind: to bring a world-class family-friendly sporting event to our great city; and to contribute significant dollars to children's charities in the province.

Since the tournament's inception, the Shaw Charity Classic presented by Rogers has not only accomplished its mission, but it has also become a game-changer for more than 270 children's charities in Alberta. Canadians from coast-to-coast have chipped in each year to help the Shaw Charity Classic raise more than $93 million through the tournament's charitable giving arm – Shaw Birdies for Kids presented by AltaLink – which was created in 2015.

Year-after-year compassionate donors from British Columbia to Prince Edward Island have helped raise record-setting donations on the PGA TOUR Champions for charitable organizations in Alberta who deliver the much-needed services to families who are relying on them more than ever.

All of the funds raised over the last 10 years have helped deliver a positive impact in the lives of these children in the areas of health, food support, family support, development and counselling, sports, arts, and youth programming.

We are incredibly grateful and inspired by everything this community has accomplished. But we also know that the work doesn't stop here.

Working with our new title partners Shaw Communications together with Rogers, our passionate Patron Group, and the event team, we will build on this unparalleled legacy of giving on the PGA TOUR Champions when we welcome golf's legendary names, who are at the heart of our award-winning event, back to Canyon Meadows Golf and Country Club this week.

In closing, I'd personally like to thank the more than 1,000 dedicated volunteers who work tirelessly each year to stage this event, Calgary's corporate community who have generously supported us from the beginning, our friends in the media who continue to share our story around the world, and most importantly – Calgary's record number of passionate golf fans who line the fairways at Canyon Meadows each summer, or catch the event on television.

You are all making a positive mark on the lives of Alberta's youth, and for that, I thank you!

I hope you enjoy the 2023 Shaw Charity Classic presented by Rogers.

JERRY KELLY, 2022

"I kept telling everybody, the Shaw Charity Classic cowboy hat is the only thing that would actually get me to take off my Cologuard hat for just a few seconds. I'm proud of this thing, it's awesome. I've always wanted one and it was so cool to get it."

DOUG BARRON, 2021

"Winning, losing, unfortunately, there's only one winner every week and we don't get it very often. So, when you do it, you should enjoy it. I knew when I made that putt on 18 no one could beat me. I had to go earn it, and I wanted to earn it. I know Steve Flesch, he's one of the best ballstrikers who's ever walked the planet. I didn't want to give it to him. I wanted to go out and hit a great drive and a great second shot. I got lucky, that's what I would tell you, I got very lucky."

ROGERS

WES SHORT JR, 2019

"I hit kind of a little bit of a thin 3wood and pushed it a little bit but I got a good break. I was thinking I hope it carries the water because I know it's not getting to the green. Then it hit a rock and kicked up on the green and I was going, oh, yeah, thank you! It was a really good break."

SCOTT MCCARRON, 2018

"I first got my start in professional golf on the Canadian Tour. So being up here in Canada really means a lot for me, and to win this tournament twice now is just a dream come true."

SCOTT MCCARRON, 2017

“That cowboy hat was new for me. I do have a couple pairs of cowboy boots. My wife is a cowgirl. She is a reining and cutting horse rider. That connection made winning the Shaw Charity Classic extra special. Canada has always had a special place in my heart.”

CARLOS FRANCO, 2016

“I was so happy to finally win my first tournament on this Tour and to do it in Canada was extra special. I love the people in Canada. Winning here in Calgary will always have a special place in my heart. Wow – to make that long putt on 18 to win – what a special feeling.”

JEFF MAGGERT, 2015

“I sure breathed a sigh of relief when that final putt went in. It is a great feeling. I’ve lived in Texas for 40 years, so I’ve seen a lot of cowboy hats. We’ll cherish this one, put it right up there with the rest of ‘em.”

FRED COUPLES, 2014

“This hat fits perfect. I really like the course. I said last year I felt like I could play it well for two days, To come back and win is a great feeling. I can just play this course. I know how to shape the ball around the trees. If I putt well, I'll be right there. I consider this to be a nice tricky, tough little course. I'll plan on coming here every year. I like the course, and the Shaw people are incredible.”

ROCCO MEDIATE, 2013

It was my lowest scoring week ever in my career those three days. This is the first time I put on a cowboy hat since I was two, but I kind of like it. I loved the place as soon as I saw it because of its little bitty fairways and lots of trees. The atmosphere was extraordinary the entire week. The inaugural event was an A-plus in my opinion.”

2022 Year in Review ... Jerry Kelly Wins Shaw Charity Classic

Jerry Kelly missed a chance to win in regulation and then made short work in the playoff with a 4-foot birdie putt to win the 2022 Shaw Charity Classic presented by Rogers.

Kelly donned the traditional white Smithbilt Cowboy Hat presented each year to the champion of the Shaw Charity Classic presented by Rogers after defeating John Huston on the first playoff hole. It was the 11th victory for the 56-year-old on the PGA TOUR Champions.

"I kept telling everybody, the Shaw Charity Classic cowboy hat is the only thing that would actually get me to take off my Cologuard hat for just a few seconds. I'm proud of this thing, it's awesome. I've always wanted one and it was so cool to get it," said Kelly. "I love coming to Canada so to get a win up here is something I've always wanted to do."

Kelly closed with a 3-under 67 and won the playoff over John Huston, who shot 65 in one of his best chances to win in his 11 years on the PGA TOUR Champions.

"It's been a long time, so I'm happy with the way that I played. The two worst putts I hit all day were on the last hole and in the playoff," said Huston. "Overall, obviously a good week because I haven't played good in a long time but would have liked to have finished it off."

The Shaw Charity Classic title was the third victory of the season for Kelly who finished fourth on the 2022 Charles Schwab Cup Money List.

The final round was so tight that five players finished one shot behind.

Kirk Triplett, who had the lead going into the final round, had a 4-foot birdie putt on the par-5 18th to join Kelly and Huston at 9-under 201. But it lost speed and caught the edge of the cup. Triplett shot 69.

U.S. Senior Open champion Pdraig Harrington (66), Joe Durant (62), Dean Wilson (66), and Alex Cejka (66) all missed the playoff by one shot.

Stephen Ames was the top Canadian, finishing in a tie for 23rd place. Mike Weir was T46.

The lone PGA TOUR Champions stop in Canada welcomed record-setting galleries of more than 46,800 people for week, all helping to raise more than $17 million for youth-based charities in Alberta, bringing the tournament's 10-year total to more than $93 million.

Kids Need Heroes

After celebrating the tenth year of the Shaw Charity Classic, Canadians chipped in to raise $17,489,219 for 260 children and youth charities across Alberta.

Thanks to the generosity of Canadians from across the country, the Shaw Charity Classic has now raised more than $93 million for youth-based charities in Alberta since 2013 through its Shaw Birdies for Kids presented by AltaLink charitable program.

“When the tournament started, we knew we had something special, but never could we have dreamed it would have grown into so much more than just a golf tournament. It is now a massive community support event that exceeds our expectations each year, and is something I am so proud to be a part of,” said Jim Riddell, Chairman, Shaw Charity Classic.

“While we always look forward to gathering at Canyon Meadows Golf and Country Club each summer to watch spectacular golf by many of the game’s greatest players, what makes the event truly special is the unwavering commitment of the generous donors across the country who show up every year to support the charitable groups that are making our communities better places to live,” said Jim Riddell, Chair of the Shaw Charity Classic’s eight-member Patron Group.

“With charitable giving being the heartbeat of the Shaw Charity Classic, the tournament simply has the power to rally the community like no other event I have seen. I truly believe that community support in Alberta is the reason this event continuously breaks charitable giving records each year.”

Ultimately, it's hundreds of thousands of Alberta children and their families who are annually the true winners of the event. Funds raised are helping deliver a positive impact for children in the areas of health, food support, family support, development and counselling, sports, arts, and youth programming.

The life-changing impacts of the tournament on Alberta's youth over the last year included helping to provide:

- 4,500 kids will have access to healthy food through the I Can for Kids Foundation
- 3,045 students will receive financial literacy, entrepreneurship, and work readiness programs through JA Southern Alberta
- Over 30,000 of Calgary's most vulnerable children will have the opportunity to live a life without victimization through the Calgary Police Foundation
- Over 4,600 youth requests for support are answered by the Distress Centre Calgary
- 20,000 students will receive bully prevention training from Dare to Care Bull Prevention and Life Skills, and
- 65,000 kids will attend education programs provided by the Heritage Park Historical Society.

The Shaw Charity Classic has been a game-changer for Alberta's children's charities since 2013, annually setting new records for the largest charitable give on the PGA TOUR Champions. In 2023, the event will expand its impact to supporting 272 charities throughout Alberta.
