Quotables

John Pak on his past experiences at Jimmie Austin OU Golf Club... "I actually played here before. I played two tournaments in junior golf and in college here, so I'm quite familiar with the course. Yeah, I do think it fits my game pretty well. I think you've got to do everything pretty well, you can't BS your way, you've got to hit fairways and greens. It's pretty tough off the tee I thought and that's usually one of my strong suits, so I've been keeping the ball in play pretty well out here. I think it suits my game pretty well."

Pak on his play so far this season... "I'm pretty happy about it. I'm kind of just taking it tournament by tournament. I'm really not, like I said, putting expectations on myself, or limitations. Kind of just, I don't know, going with the flow, I guess."

Cooper Jones on his expectations in his first Korn Ferry Tour start... "Honestly, I don't think I gave myself much expectation. I think I wanted to make the cut. I had the last tee time on the first day and I was waking up and looking at the leaderboard, saw some guys 3 under through three, 6 under through eight, I think that kind of was the mindset where it's different in college where you've got to be all gas the whole time. So that helped me just get off to a birdie start and I kept going. I haven't been super nervous and I kind of expected a little nerves, so that's good. It's all gas."

Jones on being in contention heading into the weekend... "Yeah, nerves might start rolling in as I get close to the top of the leaderboard, but like I said, I think it's just all gas. I'm playing well. The driver's a little shaky, the putter's really good, mid irons are really good. So I think I'll hit a few balls on the range, see if I can straighten out that driver a little bit, keep playing how I am."
