Quotables

Cooper Dossey on his 5-under 67 second round... "I feel like I hit it better today. I had a lot of really good looks all day and had a hard time getting the speed out there to start. Then I made a long putt on 9 and got hot early on the back nine, was hitting it really close, but I still feel like I left a lot out there, which is good. I'm hitting it well and I'm still hitting my putts the way that I want to. But we'll see. I'm really excited with how I'm hitting it."

Dossey on being in contention going into the weekend... "Yeah, I've been waiting for good golf and it's been nice this week to have no nerves or being comfortable on the golf course again. I feel like I've been up near the lead a lot this year, it seems like every cut I've made I've had one day that's just killed me. That's the difference between 20th and being in contention on the back nine on Sunday. I'm just going to keep hitting greens and let the Spider go to work, honestly."

Shad Tuten on his delayed start to the season due to injury... "Yeah, I know I've made every cut, but it's been an interesting grind. I've never experienced this, coming into the year in the middle of the season. I was ready to play literally a week, two weeks after the end of the year, then that happened, then I had four months off. So it was definitely a challenge for me to get back into it. I was very rusty with tournament golf. I played just a little bit beforehand, but I was pretty rusty. I mean it was just developing my speed back, kind of developing what I did best in the past. You know, you kind of lose that if you haven't played competitively for a certain amount of time and it was about six months, so it took a toll on me mentally more than anything. I'm here and I'm playing and I'm happy."
