Extended forecast – Partly cloudy with dry conditions expected to continue Friday. Pop-up showers and thunderstorms are possible both Saturday and Sunday afternoon as monsoonal moisture drifts back into the region. After 1pm each afternoon anticipate a 20-30% coverage of this activity – with the highest probabilities forecast for Sunday afternoon. Light and variable winds each morning will turn west-southwesterly around noon, increasing to 8-13 mph (13-21 kph) along with sporadic gusts near 15 mph (24 kph). Temperatures start out in the lower 40s (5-6°C) Friday morning before warming into the mid-80s (30-31°C) Friday afternoon. High temperatures will approach 90°F (31-32°C) this weekend.
