Stephan Jaeger (1st/-11)

- In search of his first PGA TOUR title, German native holds the 54-hole lead/co-lead for the first time in his 129th career start on TOUR; marks the first time in tournament history that a 54-hole leader/co-leader posts over-par in the third round
- Owns four top-10 finishes while seeking first PGA TOUR win (T9/2023 Rocket Mortgage Classic, T9/2022 Texas Children’s Houston Open, 5th/2022 Rocket Mortgage Classic, T6/2022 Wells Fargo Championship)
- With a win, would join Nick Dunlap (The American Express) as the second first-time winner this season
- With a win, would become the first German player to win on TOUR since Alex Cejka (2015 Puerto Rico Open)
- Owns six Korn Ferry Tour wins, including the 2016 Ellie Mae Classic at TPC Stonebrae where he shot an opening-round 58 en route to victory with a Tour-record 72-hole total of 250 (-30)

Miscellaneous notes

- Rookie Matthieu Pavon (T2/-10) posts even-par 72 during his third start this season (T7/Sony Open in Hawaii, T39/The American Express) and 11th overall on TOUR; earned his card for the 2024 season via the inaugural DP World Tour Top 10, which awarded TOUR cards to the top 10 players on the final 2023 Race to Dubai Points List; 31-year-old Frenchman won the 2023 Acciona Open de Espana, his first DP World Tour title, winning wire-to-wire by four strokes
- Making his 22nd start, but first start as a full member of the PGA TOUR, 22-year-old Dane Nicolai Højgaard (T2/-10) posts 1-over 72; two top-10 finishes on the PGA TOUR, but none in the United States (2nd/2023 Corales Puntacana Championship in the Dominican Republic, T6/2023 Genesis Scottish Open); earned his TOUR card via Special Temporary Membership/non-member FedExCup points and received exemptions into the 2024 AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am and The Genesis Invitational as the highest-ranked player, not otherwise exempt, from the final 2023 Race to Dubai Points List
- Belgium’s Thomas Detry (4th/-9) closes with a double bogey on the par-5 18th hole; finished T37 in his one prior appearance at this event as a rookie in 2023; leads the field in birdies through three rounds (19)
- Ryan Brehm (T10/-7) and Will Zalatoris (T10/-7) each card 4-under 68, the low round of the day
- Defending champion Max Homa (T27/-5) posts three consecutive rounds in the 70s and trails by six strokes entering the final round; came from five strokes behind to win the 2023 Farmers Insurance Open
- Jaeger and Detry enter the final round in contention on the Aon Swing 5 standings for the AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am. If they do not qualify via the Aon Swing 5, they can then become eligible by virtue of their position on the 2022-23 FedExCup Fall standings. The AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am will select those players, not otherwise eligible, from No. 61 and beyond on the 2022-23 FedExCup Fall standings to fill the field to 80 players. Jaeger and Detry finished at No. 61 and No. 63, respectively. Currently, Keith Mitchell (No. 69) is the 80th player in the field

Aon Swing 5 standings

Player	Position (thru R3)	Projected FedExCup Points
Stephan Jaeger	1 st	550.75
Grayson Murray	--	500
Matthieu Pavon	T2	343.563
Christiaan Bezuidenhout	MC	300
Kevin Yu	T27	170.273

The Farmers Insurance Open, the fourth event of the 2024 PGA TOUR Season and third Full-Field Event, marks the third and final opportunity for players to earn FedExCup points towards the Aon Swing 5. The top five players not otherwise exempt who earn the most FedExCup points during the Sony Open in Hawaii, The American Express and Farmers Insurance Open will qualify next week's AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am.
