Today – The cold front has moved through Southeast Michigan with much cooler and drier air overspreading the region. Temperatures will cool into the low 60s this morning before gradually warming into the upper 60s to low 70s during the afternoon. Partly cloudy skies will become mostly cloudy by late morning and continue through the afternoon before skies clear later this evening. An NNW breeze of 12-15 gusting to 20 mph will make it feel cooler as well.
