www.shrinerschildrens.org

At Shriners Children's, we are committed to reaching as many children as possible, wherever they may live, and offering them our unique, patient-centered, wrap-around care.

For most of its history, our health care system has been known as Shriners Hospitals for Children. As we adapt to current nationwide trends in health care, especially the emphasis on outpatient care, and some locations become clinics or outpatient centers, we have introduced the phrase "Shriners Children's." It is shorter and more definitive – clearly stating who we are and what we care about. We are Shriners and our commitment is to Children. In today's fast-paced world, this short phrase helps to succinctly and clearly define us.

Since opening our first hospital in 1922, we have been devoted to providing high-quality specialty medical care to the children and families who come to us, regardless of their ability to pay or insurance status. A century later, our commitment hasn't changed — only expanded.

Our three-part mission has one goal: to change and improve lives. We do this by caring for our patients, conducting research to gain knowledge and develop new treatments, and providing educational opportunities for physicians and other healthcare professionals.

From One Location to Worldwide Reach

The members of the Shriners fraternity have always shared a desire to help those in need. In the late 1910s, as a polio epidemic swept across the United States, it was apparent that many children were going without appropriate care. So the Shriners established a children's hospital to meet this need.

On May 12, 1922, thousands gathered to witness the placing of the cornerstone of the first Shriners Children's hospital, in Shreveport, Louisiana. The first patient – a little girl with clubfoot – was seen on Sept. 16, 1922, in a remodeled home adjacent to the Masonic temple while construction of the permanent hospital was underway.

What began as a single hospital is now a world-renowned and beloved healthcare system with locations in three countries. In addition, outreach programs help Shriners Children's provide hope and healing to more children in more places.

Hope and Healing

Today, Shriners Children's offers care for a range of orthopedic issues, as well as care for burn injuries, craniofacial conditions, spine care and spinal cord injuries, colorectal and gastrointestinal care, and sports medicine. Our experienced, innovative and dedicated teams work together to provide treatment to help each patient meet their goals and reach their full potential.

At Shriners Children's, we are grateful for the vision of the Shriners that led to the creation of our healthcare system. We look forward to a second hundred years of changing and improving the lives of children.

TPC Summerlin

The host course for the Shriners Children's Open, the Tournament Players Club Summerlin offers golfers a 7,255-yard stadium course layout that has gained a reputation as one of the country's most splendid golfing experiences.

The TPC, which opened for play in November 1991, was built in the heart of Summerlin, a 22,000-acre master-planned community on the western-most edge of Las Vegas. The community is currently home to more than 100,000 residents.

As a stadium course, the TPC Summerlin was built to accommodate golfing fans with unrestricted views of tee shots, fairway approaches and putting through strategically placed spectator mounds and natural amphitheaters. Still, the integrity of the course remains.

The TPC Summerlin is one of two TPC Network members in Nevada. The TPC network currently encompasses 25 courses in 10 states and, with the addition of non-domestic TPCs, three foreign countries. The TPC network is designed and managed by subsidiaries of the PGA TOUR. At present, the TPC Summerlin is owned by the PGA TOUR.

PGA TOUR Investments design architect Bobby Weed was assisted in the course design by player-consultant Fuzzy Zoeller, winner of the first Frys.com Open in 1983. Zoeller was committed to designing a course which could accommodate a major tournament and appeal to the average golfer. TPC Summerlin is an 18-hole golf course that stretches to 7,255 yards from the Championship tees. This magnificent par-71 course is covered with Bermuda grass fairways, tees and roughs; and new A-5 Bent grass greens, which were completed in March 2006.

#1 Par 4 394 yards

The opening hole plays straightaway to a slightly downhill landing area and green. Positioning the tee shot near the right fairway bunker opens up the green, especially with left-side pin placements.

How to watch: All players will be introduced at the first tee, providing a good vantage point from which to watch players tee off. Fans are given close access to the tee box here.

Hole history: In 1999, Jonathan Kaye birdied this and the next two holes to pull within two shots of eventual winner Jim Furyk. It is one of eight holes in which average tournament scores have been under par every year. 1993 champion Davis Love III eagled the hole to begin the Sunday round that year.

#2 Par 4 447 yards

A double fairway leads to the green, which is perched above a desert wash. The hole plays slightly uphill and into the prevailing wind.

How to watch: This hole gives up bunches of birdies, providing plenty of action. Your best bet is to sit above the green and watch as players hit their approach shots. In 1996, champion Tiger Woods eagled the hole twice when it played as a par 5, including in the final round.

Hole history: Jonathan Kaye birdied this, as well as the first and third holes, en route to closing to within two of 1999 winner Jim Furyk. In 1996, Tiger Woods played this hole in 2 under for the tournament to help propel him to his first PGA TOUR victory. Furyk parred the hole on Sunday in 1995 to move into a tie with Billy Mayfair, who bogeyed the hole. Furyk went on to win.

#3 Par 4 476 yards

A double fairway leads to the green, which is perched above a desert wash. The hole plays slightly uphill and into the prevailing wind.

How to watch: This hole gives up bunches of birdies, providing plenty of action. Your best bet is to sit above the green and watch as players hit their approach shots. In 1996, champion Tiger Woods eagled the hole twice when it played as a par 5, including in the final round.

Hole history: Harrison Frazar made a 10-foot eagle putt to help put him in a three-way tie for the lead on Friday in 1999's tournament. Jonathan Kaye birdied the first three holes on Sunday to pull within two of 1999 winner Jim Furyk. In 1996, champion Tiger Woods eagled the hole twice, including in the final round.

#4 Par 4 454 yards

The tee shot is vital, as bunkers flank the left and right sides of the fairway. A deep bunker front and right of the green makes a right pin position most difficult.

How to watch: The fourth hole, a long, tough Par 4, begins a circle of five holes. If you follow the players on this hole, plan on watching the fifth through ninth holes as well.

Hole history: 1997 Champion Bill Glasson bogeyed this hole to fall temporarily into a tie with Billy Mayfair. This hole ranks in the middle range each year in terms of difficulty. In 1994, Las Vegas pro Robert Gamez made the only double bogey ever by a top-5 finisher

#5 Par 3 197 yards

How to watch: Played downhill, the fifth hole offers fans a good vantage point to sit at the tee and watch players tee off. No green access is available to spectators.

Hole history: Although this event is a tournament known for low scores, no winner has played this hole under par. During 1999's final round, the hole yielded six bogeys and four double-bogeys, more doubles than any other hole. With the exception of 1997 champion Bill Glasson, every champion has played this hole in even par. Glasson played it at 1-over par.

#6 Par 4 423 yards

This hole plays slightly uphill and has a narrow fairway. The green is elevated and set in left to right with no bunkers. Most players hit an extra club to the green after hitting shorter tee shots to ensure fairway placement.

How to watch: This is one of the toughest holes to watch on the golf course. Fans are diverted away from the tee box, and tight fairways add to viewing difficulty.

Hole history: In the past, Las Vegas professional Bob May played the hole in 1-under par. Jim Furyk played this hole in 1-over par in 1999, with a bogey in Saturday's round. Second-place finisher Jonathan Kaye bogeyed and birdied this hole in the last two rounds in 1999.

#7 Par 4 371 yards

This is a medium-length dogleg left. Players will try to position their drives middle-right to give themselves the best position into the green. The green slopes back to front and can be treacherous from above the hole.

How to watch: Fans are diverted down the right side of the fairway, but good viewing of tee and approach shots can be had. Fans also can stand close to the green.

Hole history: It's one of seven holes in which scoring has averaged under par each year. In three rounds, 1999 champion Jim Furyk played the hole in 2-under par. Fourth-place finisher Chris Perry birdied the hole all three days in 1999's tournament.

#8 Par 3 254 yards

The longest Par 3 on the course, this hole plays left to right with a wash spanning the right side. A large green with bail-out left awaits tee shots that, if they are hit short and right, will invariably wind up in one of four front bunkers.

How to watch: A berm surrounding the green offers a great place to sit, relax and watch as players hit. Many players face a tricky chip into the putting surface on this long Par 3.

Hole history: Fred Couples, who tied for 10th in 1999, played the hole without a par during the weekend. He double-bogeyed Saturday, then birdied it Sunday. In 1999's final round, there were only five birdies on the day, compared with 57 pars and nine bogeys. Bob May parred the hole both days in 1999 en route to tying for 13th.

#9 Par 5 566 yards

A long, slightly downhill par-5, and a slight dogleg right. The green is protected by bunkers both front and left. The longest hitters can reach the green in two. Expect to see plenty of approaches land in the bunkers guarding the green.

How to watch: Concessions, scoreboards, the clubhouse, the practice green and the driving range are very close to the ninth green. Tremendous scoring opportunities for players translates into great spectating chances for fans.

Hole history: Harrison Frazar double-bogeyed this hole in 1999's final round en route to a 76 and a T15 finish. This hole played fifth-easiest in 1999, with a stroke average of 4.776

#10 Par 4 425 yards

A lightly downhill par-4 that doglegs right with fairway bunkers left. A large, deep bunker is positioned front right with the back of the green falling away slightly.

How to watch: Fans with clubhouse passes make it a tradition to sit on the patio and watch as players tee off at this hole. It plays downhill, giving spectators good vantage points. In 1996, Davis Love III double-bogeyed here, giving the lead to eventual champion Tiger Woods.

Hole history: During 1999's final round, this hole gave up fewer birdies (four) than any other hole. Both champion Jim Furyk and runner-up Jonathan Kaye pared this hole on the last two days of the tournament. In 1996, Davis Love III double-bogeyed here, giving the lead to eventual champion Tiger Woods.

#11 Par 4 441 yards

How to watch: For fans following a particular player, the 11th can be interesting scorewise, but it doesn't provide the best vantage points for watching.

Hole history: In 1999's final round, this hole tied with the second hole for most bogeys (14). Kevin Sutherland and Jonathan Kaye were the only players in the top 10 to birdie this hole Sunday. Joe Ogilvie (T10) and Brian Watts (T13) triple-bogeyed the hole in Saturday's 1999 round.

#12 Par 4 457 yards

Another long par 4, the 12th is home to a lake that guards the right side of the fairway and green. Pin placements on the right are very challenging.

How to watch: Although it's a long walk from the clubhouse, good vantage points of the water-guarded green and the 13th tee make this a good spectator hole.

Hole history: In terms of stroke average, this hole played toughest in 1999's final round, at .206 strokes over par. In 1999, Joe Ogilvie triple-bogeyed this hole after taking a 7 on the previous hole en route to a 42 on the back. Tommy Armour III scored the only eagle on this hole in the past.

#13 Par 5 606 yards

For most players, this is a three-shot hole that demands accuracy. It plays right to left with a cluster of bunkers left. A fairway bunker short of the green emphasizes placement for the approaches to the split-level green. An additional bunker in the left fairway is a 306 yard carry for the professionals from the back tee.

How to watch: There's plenty of good spectating to be had from tee to green on this hole. Most TOUR professionals will put a little extra into their tee shots here, which can be fun to watch.

Hole history: Glen Day (T15 in 1999) went eagle-birdie in his final two rounds last year. This and the third were the only holes on the course to give up no score higher than bogey in 1999. This hole played second-easiest overall in 1999, at an average .332 strokes under par.

#14 Par 3 156 yards

Tee shots are played over bunkers to a right-to-left, shallow green. Another back left bunker and trees guard shots if long. It's the shortest par-3 on the course.

How to watch: Players consider this a birdie hole, so they're firing at the flag here, giving fans some exciting golf action.

Hole history: The first birdie of three straight put Jim Furyk in a three-way tie for the lead in 1999's final round. Dudley Hart birdied this hole and four of the last five in a final round to propel him to a third-place finish. Mike Hulbert aced this hole with an 8-iron in the second round in 1996.

#15 Par 4 341 yards

A short, drivable hole by the longest hitters. Desert runs the length of the hole on the left with bunkers separating the two-level fairway. The green is long, narrow and elevated, and is surrounded by bunkers.

How to watch: The 15th is one of the most exciting holes on the course to watch, as many players try and drive the green. This marks the beginning of the stretch of four best viewing holes on the course. A new hospitality venue just off the back of the green will be a hot spot for spectators.

Hole history: Jim Furyk birdied the hole both days over the weekend on his way to his third win in Las Vegas in 1999. Billy Mayfair (T15) birdied the hole Saturday and Sunday in 1999's event. This hole played third-easiest overall in 1999, at an average .266 strokes under par.

#16 Par 5 560 yards

A good tee shot puts big hitters in position to go for the green in two. Trees guard both sides of the fairway and a lake guards the front of the green.

How to watch: Large mounds behind the green offer great vantage points to watch shots as they come in over the lake. From here, fans also can see the 17th tee. Fans can take in the new spectator venue this year.

Hole history: Although one of the easiest holes on the course, last year it gave up more triple-bogeys-plus (6) than any other hole. 1999 champion Jim Furyk birdied this hole both Saturday and Sunday. Fred Couples took an 8 here on a Saturday, but still finished tied for 10th.

#17 Par 3 196 yards

This downhill hole is one of the most exciting on the course. Tee shots to this green, which is long but narrow and guarded by water on the right, are played under intense pressure late Sunday afternoon.

How to watch: A hill that surrounds the right side of this hole provides the perfect stage on which to sit and watch the exciting action here. The narrow green is guarded by water on the left, making tee shots interesting to watch. A brand new viewing platform will allow fans to get up close to all the action as TOUR players attempt to reach the seemingly easy par 3 hole.

Hole history: In the past, Jim Furyk double-bogeyed the hole on Saturday and shot 71. Jonathan Kaye birdied this hole and the last in 1999, and aced it with a 5-iron on the first day of play. 1994 champion Bruce Lietzke played the hole in 2-under par. Jonathan Byrd won in 2010 with a walk-off-ace for the first ever in PGA TOUR history in a playoff against Martin Laird and Cameron Percy.

#18 Par 4 444 yards

A long, slightly uphill hole that forces players to carry their tee shots over a wash. Approach shots are hit to a deep green protected by a small lake to the left. It's a challenging hole that's fun to watch, as players decide how aggressive to be depending on how they stand.

How to watch: Corporate hospitality tents line the right side of the fairway and behind the green. In addition, thousands of fans can enjoy uninhibited views from the hill overlooking the green.

Hole history: In 1999, this hole surrendered only 42 bogeys overall, compared with 190 pars, 35 bogeys, 15 doubles and four triples or worse. Third-place finisher Dudley Hart also birdied this hole on a Sunday.

Was No. 33 heading into third FedExCup Playoffs event but T56 at BMW Championship contributed to missing the TOUR Championship, ending the season at No. 43 in the standings...Claimed his first top-10 finish, a T10, in his first start as a PGA TOUR member at the Frys.com Open. Opened and closed with 4-under 68s to finish at 11-under 277 in the season's first event...The following week, carded a final-round 10-under 61 (which came 2½ hours before the final group holed out) to finish the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open at 16-under 268, winning on the PGA TOUR for the first time by one stroke over six players. In the process, he became the 10th player since 2000 to post his first career victory at the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open, joining Phil Taturangi (2002), Andre Stolz (2004), Wes Short, Jr. (2005), Troy Matteson (2006), George McNeill (2007), Marc Turnesa (2008), Martin Laird (2009), Kevin Na (2011) and Ben Martin (2014-15). His closing-61 (equaling the best final round ever in Las Vegas) marked the lowest finish on TOUR by a winner since Tommy Gainey closed the 2012 McGladrey Classic with a 10-under 60. His final-round, seven-stroke, come-from-behind victory marked the largest in Las Vegas and the largest on TOUR since Gainey came from the same number back to win in Sea Island in 2012. Joined Emiliano Grillo (Frys.com Open) as rookie winners to start the season, marking the first back-to-back rookie winners on TOUR since 2011 when Charl Schwartzel won the Masters and Brendan Steele won the Valero Texas Open. The victory came in his fifth career PGA TOUR start (second as a member) at age 23 years, 10 months, 25 days, making him the fifth consecutive winner under age 30 to win the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open. Since the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open moved to a 72-hole event in 2004 (12 events), he became the first champion who failed to record all four rounds in the 60s, carding

Opened with 71-68 in Louisiana and was T43 after 36 holes. Had an eagle-birdie-birdie run on Nos. 7-9 on Saturday, leading to a 66. Added another 66 on Sunday that included a second eagle in as many days on the par-5 7th hole

The next day, he successfully Monday-qualified for the PGA TOUR's Shell Houston Open. Shot rounds of 73-72 at the GC of Houston later that week to miss the cut

At El Bosque, was four off the lead after 54 holes lead. Made three final-round bogeys that derailed his run at victory.

Earned his first career title in only his sixth start with a five-shot win at the United Leasing Championship in early May. Matched the Victoria National GC course record with an 8-under 64 in Saturday's third round and grabbed a four-shot lead after 54 holes. Smylie chalked up three consecutive birdies starting at the second hole Sunday to increase his lead to eight shots over his nearest challenger. He was never in serious danger of losing the lead the rest of the day. Stumbled on the back nine with double bogeys at Nos. 12 and 16 and saw his lead drop to four strokes briefly. Late bogeys by others resulted in his winning margin. Picked up a check for $108,000 and moved from No. 28 to No. 4 on the money list through eight of 21 regular-season events. Became the third rookie winner and sixth first-time winner on Tour this season

Would miss cuts in five of his next seven starts.

In August, solidified his standing on the money list with a runner up at the Price Cutter Charity Championship. Positioned himself for a Sunday run with a bogey-free 65 Saturday that assured him a spot in the final pairing. Started the final round birdie-birdie and cut Dawie van der Walt's lead in half. He turned up the heat on the inward nine with an eagle on the par-5 11th hole. Bogeys two of the next three but responded with a birdie at the last hole to break out of a four-way tie and grab solo second.

Career Highlights

2013-14: In second season on TOUR and first since 2011, made 13 of 26 cuts, with a career-best three top-10 finishes. All three top-10s were third-place finishes. Advanced to the FedExCup

Playoffs for the first time in his career. Season ended by missing the cut at the Deutsche Bank Championship. Was one of six players to start the Deutsche Bank Championship inside the top 70 (63rd) in the FedExCup standings only to drop out of the FedExCup Playoffs.

Notched his best career finish on TOUR, at the Puerto Rico Open (third). Shot rounds of 68-67-70-66 to climb the leaderboard in the final round in Puerto Rico.

Claimed a T3 at the RBC Heritage after holding a share of the second-round lead with Jim Furyk and K.J. Choi. A third-round 70 dropped him down the leaderboard before a final-round 66 moved him two shots off Matt Kuchar's winning score.

Finished T3 at the Quicken Loans National, with rounds of 72-68-70-71. Missed the Justin Rose-Shawn Stefani playoff at Congressional CC by one shot.

2013: Earned his first career win with a playoff victory at the rain-delayed United Leasing

Championship in late June. Fired a 5-under 67 in the final round to get to 11-under 277. Was tied at the end of regulation with Ashley Hall, Joe Affrunti and Billy Hurley, but a nearly four-hour rain delay prevented the start of the playoff. Was first off the tee Monday morning in the playoff and hit 3-wood into the fairway and then watched as Affrunti hit into the high rough and both Hall and Hurley hit tee shots into the water on the right. Hit 6-iron to 22 feet and two-putted for par and the title. First-place check of $108,000 moved him from No. 21 to No. 4 on the money list after 14 events.

Two weeks after his victory, and in his next start, he was back in contention, this time at the Utah Championship outside Salt Lake City. Shot rounds of 67-63-67-66 to finish at 21-under, a stroke out of the Steven Alker-Hall playoff. Had a putt on the 18th hole to force a tie, but his effort came up short.

Earned his first top-10 finish of the year with a T8 at the rain-shortened Stadion Classic at UGA in early May.

Was T4 at The Rex Hospital Open in June.

Added a T6 at the Albertsons Boise Open in July when he fired a final-round 63 to move up the leaderboard. Finished three shots out of a playoff.

Continued his torrid summer with his second win of the season a week later at the Mylan Classic near Pittsburgh, giving him two wins in six weeks. Never far from the lead the first two days at Southpointe GC, his third-round 67 gave him a four-shot lead heading into the final day.

Bogeyed the last two holes Saturday to see his lead drop from six. Started quickly with three birdies in his first five holes Sunday and quickly opened an eight-stroke advantage. Consecutive bogeys at Nos. 6 and 7, followed by a string of pars, saw his lead drop to two as former U.S.

Amateur champion Kelly Kraft was making a charge. Final round turned when he chipped in for an eagle-2 at the 311-yard 15th hole about the same time Kraft was bogeying the 16th, returning his lead to five shots. Closed bogey-birdie-birdie to wind up 17-under and five better than Kraft, who collected 10 birdies en route to a 7-under 64. First-place check of $121,500 moved him to No. 2 on the money list at the time, the position he would finish the Regular Season in, allowing him to secure his 2013-14 PGA TOUR card.

Finished T3 at the Chiquita Classic, the second event in the Web.com Tour Finals series. Bounced back after a T32 finish a week earlier at the Hotel Fitness Championship. Posted four rounds below par at River Run CC near Charlotte and was boosted in the last round by four consecutive birdies, starting at No. 9.

Closed with a 4-under 67 in the final round of the Nationwide Children's Hospital Championship to jump into a T4. Moved to No. 9 in the Finals' priority ranking, with just one event left on the schedule, eventually finishing 10th on the chart.

Finished 2013 in the top-5 in five statistical categories: 1st in All-Around Ranking, 2nd in Scoring Average (69.00), 3rd in Birdie Average (4.42) and Greens in Regulation Percentage (74.27), and T4 in Total Driving. Also recorded the most birdies on Tour, 358.

2012: Made the cut in 10 of 24 starts and had a pair of top-10 finishes and seven top-25s.

Was T6 at the Midwest Classic in Kansas City, where he carded all four rounds in the 60s. Finished solo third at the Winn-Dixie Jacksonville Open, which jumped him from 94 to 60 on the money list. Earned a place in the Web.com Tour Championship field. Carded all four rounds under par at TPC Sawgrass' Dye's Valley Course, making him the second player in tournament history to do that.

Closed the year with four more sub-par scores and a T13 at the Web.com Tour Championship, which moved him up six spots, to No. 54 on the final money list.

2011: In his rookie year on the PGA TOUR, claimed three top-25 finishes in 25 starts on TOUR

Held a share of the first-round lead for the first time in his career when he was one of a TOUR-record nine players tied for the lead after 18 holes at the Northern Trust Open. Missed the cut after a second-round 80.

Finished T6 at the Northern Trust Open for his first top-10 of the season.

Second top-10 of the year came the following week, at the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship. After finishing T33 in 2012 in his only other start in the event, improved to T5 after losing to defending champion Hunter Mahan, 1-up, in the quarterfinals.

Fell to 1-3 in playoffs on the PGA TOUR when his 7-foot, 1-inch par putt on the first playoff hole at the RBC Heritage missed and led to Graeme McDowell's second PGA TOUR victory. The runner-up finish was the fourth of his career, with the three previous all coming in 2011.

Finished T5 at the Travelers Championship with rounds of 65-69-72-65. It was his first top-10 in six career Hartford starts.

Tied the Oak Hill CC record with a 64 in the morning wave of the second round at the PGA Championship, but Jason Dufner shot a 63 in the afternoon to take over the course record. The competitive course record of 64 on the East Course at Oak Hill was also held by Ben Hogan in the 1942 Rochester Open and by Curtis Strange in the 1989 U.S. Open. Previous-best round in a major was a 66 at both the 2011 U.S. Open (T14) and 2011 Open Championship (T16). Went on to finish T25 at the PGA Championship.

Was chosen as a captain's pick by Fred Couples for the U.S. team in The Presidents Cup. Finished No. 11 in The Presidents Cup points list to just miss on an automatic qualifying spot.

Finished solo fourth-, including a final-round, 7-under 63 (the low round of the week)-at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola. It was his fifth top-10 finish of the year.

Turned in a 2-1-2 record in five Presidents Cup matches in the U.S.'s three-point triumph over the International team.

2012: Finished No. 16 in the FedExCup standings

Opened his season in a similar way to the previous year. The No. 2 man in the 2011 FedExCup shot a final-round, 5-under 68 for a T3 finish at the Hyundai Tournament of Champions.

A month later, opened with a 6-under 65 at the Waste Management Phoenix Open as the highest-ranked player in the field at the time (No. 6). Went on to T8.

Posted his third top-10 of the season with a T10 at the Transitions Championship despite having to withdraw from the pro-am with food poisoning. Carded four rounds in the 60s at the Copperhead Course for the second-consecutive year and has posted 10 sub-70 scores in 14-career rounds.

Finished fourth at the Wells Fargo Championship after holding a share of the first-round lead and sole possession of the third-round lead. Just missed a long putt on No. 18 for birdie to join the playoff. Made his fourth start at the Wells Fargo Championship (missed cut in 2009, missed cut in 2010 and T21 in 2011). Had gone 220 consecutive holes on TOUR without recording a three-putt until he did so at the par-4 11th hole at Quail Hollow Club in the final round

Entered the final round of the U.S. Open trailing Jim Furyk and Graeme McDowell by four strokes but carded a 2-under 68 to finish 1-over 281, good enough for a one-stroke win over McDowell and Michael Thompson. It was his first major championship title. Joined Jack Fleck, Billy Casper, Scott Simpson and Lee Janzen as come-from-behind winners of the five U.S. Opens held at The Olympic Club. After two early bogeys, tallied three consecutive birdies on Nos. 6-8 and another on No. 10 before closing with eight pars to win for the third time on the PGA TOUR. Added his name to the list of Dustin Johnson (six), Sean O'Hair (four), Anthony Kim (three) and Rory McIlroy (three) as players in their 20s with three or more TOUR wins. His win is the sixth in the last eight majors by a player under age 30. Became just the third American winner of the U.S. Open since 2004, joining 2008 champion Tiger Woods and 2009 winner Lucas Glover. Also became the first player to win the U.S. Open in his second start (T14 in 2011) since Jerry Pate in 1976. The win, his first top-10 in his fifth major championship appearance, gives him a 10-year exemption into the U.S. Open, five-year exemptions to the Masters, PGA Championship, The Open Championship and PLAYERS, as well as a five-year exemption on the PGA TOUR.

Held the second- and third-round leads at The Greenbrier Classic and entered the final nine holes with a one-stroke lead for a second consecutive year. Again struggled on the closing nine, carding a 4-over 40 to finish T7. Played his first 65 holes with just one bogey but had four in his final seven holes. Recorded his 13th top-10 since last year's Greenbrier Classic, the most on TOUR.

Did not play in The Open Championship due to the pending birth of his daughter Willow. Also missed the RBC Canadian Open and World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational after daughter was born.

Jumped out to a share of the first-round lead at the BMW Championship with a 64, but finished T51 after three over-par closing rounds.

A 4-under 66 equaled the best final round at the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, giving him a career-best T5 finish at the event and a 16th-place showing in the FedExCup.

Finished 2-2 in his first Ryder Cup appearance for the U.S. team. Lost, 2 and 1, to Ian Poulter in his singles match as the European team won the biennial competition.

2011: Turned in a career year with his first two TOUR wins and No. 2 finishes in the FedExCup standings and money list. Made 23 of 26 cuts with 21 top-25 finishes and 12 top-10 finishes. Three runner-up finishes included two playoff losses. Made the largest one-season earnings jump in TOUR history when he went from $972,962 in 2010 to $6,683,214, an increase of $5,374,391.

Closed with a pair of 4-under 67s at the TPC Scottsdale to earn T8 honors at the Waste Management Phoenix Open in his fourth start of the season.

At the Transitions Championship, he recorded the best result of his PGA TOUR career and first runner-up finish, ending one-shot behind Gary Woodland. Arrived at the 72nd hole tied with Woodland at 15-under but carded a bogey when his approach shot from a fairway bunker landed over the green and was unable to convert the up-and-down, a 20-foot par putt. One of only two players in the field to post four-consecutive sub-70 rounds, he led the field in Putting, with 24.2 per round.

Second runner-up finish of the year came after a two-hole playoff loss to Bubba Watson at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans. Eagled the par-5 second hole in the final round in the final group with Watson, who also eagled the hole. Was assessed a one-stroke penalty on the 15th green. He had missed his 40-foot birdie putt and walked to tap in par putt from 1 foot. After taking his stance and grounding his putter, he started his stroke when the ball moved, a violation of Rule 18-2.B. After consulting with rules officials, he was required to replace the ball in its original position and add one stroke to his score. Was at 16-under at the time and leading Watson by one shot. The penalty resulted in a bogey-5 and dropped him into a tie with Watson at 15-under, before the playoff ensued.

Finished T7 at the Memorial Tournament for his first top 10 in three starts at the Memorial. Final-round 68 was his first round in the 60s at Muirfield Village GC out of 10 career rounds.

Fired a season-best, 6-under 64 in the third round of the AT&T National en route to collecting his fifth top-10 of the season, a career best.

Continued to add to his top-10 performances with a T9 at The Greenbrier Classic, just two strokes out of a three-man playoff won by Scott Stallings. Shared the second-round lead with Brendon de Jonge at 7-under before rounds of 69-70 led to his 14th top 25 in 16 weekend appearances.

Won his first TOUR event by three shots at the Wyndham Championship, with rounds of 66-65-64-67. The Wake Forest graduate moved to No. 3 in the FedExCup standings entering the Playoffs. Is the 16th first-time winner in the 71-year history of the Wyndham Championship. He became the third straight first-time winner in Greensboro, joining Ryan Moore in 2009 and Arjun Atwal in 2010. He was 13-under-par on Nos. 10-18 and 10-under on the par-5s during the week. He finished first in Strokes Gained–Putting, gaining 8.411 strokes on the field. He led after the third round and went onto victory. His only other previous 54-hole lead/co-lead was a tie for first with eventual champion Bubba Watson at the Zurich Classic of New Orleans earlier in the season. He won in his third start at the Wyndham Championship: 2009 (missed cut) and 2010 (T8). Became the seventh different winner of the Wyndham Championship from an ACC school. He is the third Wake Forest graduate to win the Wyndham Championship. Lanny Wadkins in 1983 and Scott Hoch in 2001 also won there.

Came back the following week after his win in Greensboro with a T10 at The Barclays. After opening with a 71, he closed with rounds of 66-63 to fall just one spot to No. 4 in the FedExCup standings. Finish at The Barclays was his eighth top-10 and 16th top-25 finish of the season (21 starts), more than his combined career totals in each category entering the season (six top-10 and 15 top-25 finishes).

Two weeks after his win in Greensboro, he birdied the second-extra hole to defeat Chez Reavie at the Deutsche Bank Championship, becoming the first player since Ernie Els in 2010 to win twice in a three-week span. Took over the top spot in the FedExCup standings (moving from No. 4) with four rounds in the 60s and a 72-hole total of 15-under 269. Final round consisted of a front-nine, 6-under 30, tying the front-nine scoring record at TPC Boston. Closed with a birdie on No. 18 to finish regulation and then birdied both playoff holes.

Finished fifth at the BMW Championship in his second career start at the event (T61 in 2009). Retained the No. 1 spot in the FedExCup standings heading into the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola, where he would eventually finish second in the season-long race.

Jumped out to the first-round lead at the McGladrey Classic with a 7-under 63, equaling his career-low round. Added rounds of 67-69-66 to finish regulation tied with Ben Crane at 15-under. Missed a 4-foot par putt on the second extra hole, leading to his third runner-up finish of the season. His record fell to 1-2 in career playoffs. Entered the week $68,971 behind Luke Donald for the top spot on the official money list (which guarantees a five-year exemption on the PGA TOUR), but with his runner-up performance moved ahead of Donald by $363,029 as both players headed to the season-ending Children's Miracle Network Hospitals Classic.

Despite four rounds in the 60s at the Disney World event, a last-minute addition to his schedule, he couldn't hold off a hard-charging Donald, who claimed the victory and the money title.

Rounds of 68-69-69-69 was good enough for T6 honors, his sixth top-10 finish in his last seven starts. He played with Donald for all four rounds.

One of six rookies on U.S. Presidents Cup team, posting a 3-2-0 record for the victorious squad captained by Fred Couples. 2010: Finished inside the top 100 on the money list in sophomore year on TOUR, recording two top-10s. Played in the first two Playoff events.

Just down the road from alma mater Wake Forest, his first top-10 finish came in the form of a T8 at the Wyndham Championship on the strength of a final-round, career-low 63.

Recorded his second top-10 of the season with a T4 at the Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open, aided by a third-round 64. Took the lead on back nine Sunday after back-to-back birdies on No. 15 and No. 16 to get to 22-under, before hitting tee shot into water hazard and recording a double-bogey at the par-3 17th hole to finish one stroke out of a playoff. 2009: Recorded four top-10s in his rookie season on the PGA TOUR and placed 70th on the money list. Began his season with a 4-under 66, just one off the first-round lead at the Sony Open in Hawaii, on his way to a T9 finish.

Came back the following week with five rounds in the 60s, including a 64 in the third round, to finish T5 at the 50th Bob Hope Classic hosted by Arnold Palmer.

Next top-10 finish came at The Barclays where he finished eighth after holding the 36-hole lead (by two strokes) for the first time in his TOUR career. Jumped from No. 85 to No. 41 in the FedExCup standings after The Barclays to be the leading rookie in the PGA TOUR Playoffs, eventually finishing 62nd in the standings.

Final-round 65 earned him his fourth top-10 of the year, a T7 at the Turning Stone Resort Championship. 2008: Turned pro after completing a stellar amateur career at Wake Forest. Finished T7 at the PGA TOUR Qualifying Tournament to earn rookie card for 2009.

Made three of six cuts on the PGA TOUR, with a best finish of T31 as an amateur in his PGA TOUR debut at the Arnold Palmer Invitational. Received Sponsor Exemption for his amateur record.

Turned pro in June and T64 in his professional debut at the Stanford St. Jude Championship.

Also T37 at the Travelers Championship the following week.

Played eight events on the Web.com Tour, with two runner-up finishes, four behind Colt Knost at the Price Cutter Charity Championship in late July and losing a playoff to Arjun Atwal at the Chattanooga Classic in mid-October. Finished T11 at the Web.com Tour Championship at TPC Craig Ranch to finish 45th on the money list with $148,991. Amateur: Three-time All-American for Wake Forest and four-time All-ACC. ACC Player of the Year as a senior in 2008. Set a new ACC Tournament record of 14-under 202 in 2008, bettering the mark of 204 set by former Wake Forest star and PGA TOUR veteran Gary Hallberg in 1980.

Member of the victorious Walker Cup team in 2007 that defeated Great Britain and Ireland at Royal County Down GC in Newcastle, Northern Ireland. Also a member of the Palmer Cup Team.

Won the 2007 Southern Amateur at Pinehurst and the Dogwood Amateur in Atlanta.

Career Highlights

2012: Finished a career-best No. 11 in the FedExCup standings. Previous-best showing was No. 21 in 2010.

In the first event following the Playoffs, he took advantage of a home-field advantage at the Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open at TPC Summerlin in Las Vegas. In the first round, he holed out for an eagle-two at the par-4 15th en route to a course-record-tying, 10-under 61 to take a one-stroke lead over Brendon de Jonge. A 5-under 66 in the final round was good for a one-stroke victory over de Jonge, making him the first player to take a first-round lead at the event all the way to the winner's circle since the event was shortened to 72 holes in 2004. His second PGA TOUR win came less than a month before his wife, Nichole, was due to give birth to the couple's first child.

Finished T4 at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, with rounds of 71-71-71-70. Was one of two players (winner Tiger Woods was the other) with four under-par rounds. Recorded his third career hole-in-one on TOUR in the first round with a 5-iron from 201 yards on the seventh hole.

Four weeks later, was one of just 11 players to break 70 in the final round of the Valero Texas Open. Claimed a T8, with Cameron Tringale and Hunter Haas. The top-10 finish marked just his second start in the event (T53 in 2005).

Finished T5 at the Wells Fargo Championship after holding a share of the first-round lead.

Four rounds in the 60s was good for a T8 at the John Deere Classic in his fourth appearance at TPC Deere Run. Eagled the par-5 second hole in the first and third rounds on his way to a 14-under total, six strokes shy of Zach Johnson's winning score.

Opened with a 7-under 64 and went on to finish T10 at the Deutsche Bank Championship for the second year in a row.

Finished T10 at the BMW Championship and was one of two players to start the week outside the cut line for the TOUR Championship by Coca-Cola and advance to Atlanta. Started the week No. 35 and moved up to No. 28.

After beginning the FedExCup Playoffs at No. 64 in the standings and climbing into the TOUR Championship field, finished T3 (his career-best seventh top-10 finish of the season) at East Lake to secure a career-best 11th-place finish in the FedExCup. Managed top-25 finishes in all four Playoffs events, including top 10s in the last three. Moved into a share of the lead with just three holes remaining at the TOUR Championship, but bogeys on his final three holes left him with the T3 finish. In only other TOUR Championship appearance, finished T9 (2010). 2011: Made 18 of 22 cuts to go with four top 10s and nine top 25s.

Four sub-par rounds led to a T4 at the Northern Trust Open, his first top-10 of the season.

Posted second consecutive top 10 with a T5 at the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship. Defeated Francesco Molinari (3 and 1), K.J. Choi (5 and 4) and Nick Watney (19 holes) before falling to eventual champion Luke Donald (5 and 4) in the quarterfinals.

Missed a 4-foot, 3-inch putt for par on the final hole of the Travelers Championship to fall out of a tie for the lead with Fredrik Jacobson and finish T2. His 7-under 63 left him in a tie with John Rollins at 19-under. Has posted a runner-up finish in six of his last seven years on TOUR (2011 Travelers Championship, 2010 AT&T National, 2008 HP Byron Nelson Championship, 2007 Memorial Tournament, 2006 Travelers Championship and 2005 RBC Canadian Open). The one year during that stretch that he failed to record a second-place finish was the same year he posted his only victory (2009 Wyndham Championship). Made his sixth start at the Travelers Championship, including runner-up finishes during his inaugural start in 2006 and again this year. His other top finishes in Hartford included a T4 (2009) and T13 (2010).

.Held a share of the second-round lead at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational before finishing T23.

Making his sixth start at the Deutsche Bank Championship, recorded his first top 10 (T10). 2010: Claimed six top-10 finishes, including top-10s at the final two Playoffs events for the FedExCup.

Finished T6 in his first start at the season-opening SBS Championship, five shots behind repeat winner Geoff Ogilvy.

Finished T10 in his second start of the season at the Bob Hope Classic.

Began the final round of the Memorial Tournament tied for 17th. Shot a 4-under 68 Sunday to climb 12 spots to T5.

Finished second at the AT&T National, giving him runner-up finishes in five out of his last six years on TOUR (2010 AT&T National, 2008 HP Byron Nelson Championship, 2007 Memorial Tournament, 2006 Travelers Championship, 2005 RBC Canadian Open). The one year during that stretch that he failed to record a second-place finish was the same year he posted his only victory (2009 Wyndham Championship). As a result of his finish, gained entry into the 2010 Open Championship as the top finisher in the top five not otherwise eligible. Went on to miss the cut at St. Andrews.

Carried a one-stroke lead into the final round of the BMW Championship, but a 2-over 73 left him T3 and three strokes behind tournament-winner Dustin Johnson. His effort was still good enough to earn a spot in the TOUR Championship, moving from No. 56 to No. 28 in the FedExCup standings. It represented his first top-10 finish in 11 Playoff starts. Began the week with a 6-under 65, including a Cog Hill G&CC record, 7-under 29 on the back nine.

In his first TOUR Championship start, closed with a pair of rounds in the 60s (68-69) to finish T9 for his sixth top-10 of the season. 2009: Surpassed $2 million in earnings for the first time, notching his first victory and tallying six top-10s and nine top-25s.

After missing the cut in 2007 and 2008 at the FBR Open, rallied in 2009 by firing four rounds in the 60s to finish T6.

Recorded the second top-10 finish of his career in a major championship (T9 at 2006 PGA Championship) with a T10 at the U.S. Open, snapping a streak of three consecutive missed cuts.

Followed U.S. Open week with a T4 at Travelers Championship, shooting four rounds in the 60s, including a final-round 64, his season low to date.

Claimed his first PGA TOUR win with a birdie on the third hole of a sudden-death playoff to beat Kevin Stadler and Jason Bohn at the Wyndham Championship. After vaulting up the leaderboard with five consecutive birdies on the back nine, won it with a 6-foot birdie putt on No. 18 at Sedgfield CC. Stadler's second shot on the third playoff hole skipped off the back of the green. He chipped within 20 feet, but his putt drifted to the low side of the cup. Bohn was eliminated on the first playoff hole. All three players finished at 16-under 264 with Moore and Stadler making bogeys on the 72nd hole and Bohn shooting a final-round 62.

Career Highlights

In his seventh start at the event, claimed his first top-10 finish of the season, a T5, at the Waste Management Phoenix Open. Nicknamed Kevin "ArizoNA" because of a history of strong finishes at TPC Scottsdale. Prior to his T5, he finished T2 in 2005, T4 in 2008 and third in 2009.

Came back the following week with his first top-10 finish in six starts at the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am, finishing six strokes behind Phil Mickelson to T5. As a result of his finish, moved into the top 64 in the Official World Golf Ranking to earn an invitation to the World Golf Championships-Accenture Match Play Championship.

Finished T4 at the Arnold Palmer Invitational, with rounds of 73-68-69-73. His week at Bay Hill started another solid three-tournament stretch, which included a T12 at the Masters Tournament and a T8 at the RBC Heritage, with his solid play in Harbour Town marking his 10th consecutive made cut. Has three top 10s at the RBC Heritage, including in back-to-back seasons (also T9 in 2011).

Held the outright 54-hole lead by one stroke at THE PLAYERS Championship, following rounds of 67-68-68, but struggled to a final-round 76 and finished T7. Held a share of the second-round lead with Zach Johnson and eventual winner Matt Kuchar at 8-under. Opening-round 67 featured a 6-under 30 on the back nine, equaling the tournament record score on that nine at TPC Sawgrass. Collected his fifth top 10 of the year and second in seven appearances at TPC Sawgrass (T3 in 2009).

Posted all four rounds in the 60s to finish T7 at The Greenbrier Classic for his sixth top-10 finish of the season, tied for tops on TOUR.

2011: Picked up first TOUR win despite recording his fewest made cuts (15) in a season since 2006. Finished No. 30 on the money list to earn an invite to the 2012 Masters.

Finished T5 at the Bob Hope Classic, with all five rounds in the 60s, his second consecutive top-10 performance at the Hope.

Posted second top-five of the year with solo third at the Northern Trust Open, his best finish in eight career appearances at the event he attended as a youth.

Posted third top-10 finish of the season with a T9 at The Heritage, thanks in large part to a final-round, 5-under 66.

Recorded his second straight top 10 with a fifth-place finish at the Wells Fargo Championship. Opened with three rounds in the 60s before a final-round 71 dropped him three shots out of the playoff.

Recorded his first top-10 finish in his 10th major championship start. Had a T10 at the PGA Championship. Second-round 69 and final-round 67 represented his first sub-70 scores in 28 overall major championship rounds.

After entering the final round of the Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open with a share of the lead with Nick Watney, carded a 6-under 65 Sunday to top Watney by two strokes for his first PGA TOUR victory. In the process set the tournament 72-hole scoring record, with a 23-under 261. Became the 12th straight winner of the event to post every round in the 60s. Entered the week with $10,254,294 in career earnings, trailing only Briny Baird ($11,905,122) and Brett Quigley ($11,016,575) for most career money earned without a TOUR victory. Became the 13th first-time winner this season. Ironically, he won his only Web.com Tour event as a resident of Rancho Cucamonga, Calif.—the host city of his win at the 2006 Mark Christopher Charity Classic. First PGA TOUR win also came in his current city of residence (Las Vegas). 2010: Earned second straight trip to the TOUR Championship and totaled four top-10s through the PGA TOUR Playoffs for the FedExCup.

Career Highlights

Posted a final-round, 6-under 67 and then defeated Robert Garrigus with a par-4 on the second playoff hole to win the Hyundai Tournament of Champions, the fifth win of his career. After winning his last start of 2010 (Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open) with a historic playoff hole-in-one, became the first player to capture back-to-back starts in playoff fashion since Tiger Woods (1999 World Golf Championships-American Express Championship and 2000 Mercedes Championships). Snapped a streak of nine consecutive international winners at the event, becoming the first American to win since Jim Furyk in 2001. Went on to win after sharing the first- and third-round leads. Six starts later, posted his second top-10 finish of the season with a T10 at the World Golf Championships-Cadillac Championship. Entered the final round of the Wells Fargo Championship with a one-stroke lead over Pat Perez, recorded a 72 and dropped a playoff on the first extra hole to Lucas Glover. The runner-up finish is the second of his career (2003 John Deere Classic). He is now two for three when carrying the lead or co-lead into the final round on the PGA TOUR, winning the B.C. Open and the Hyundai Tournament of Champions before falling in Charlotte. Made his eighth start at Quail Hollow. His only other made cut led to a T5 in 2009. Total of 15-under 201 after three rounds bettered the previous-best 54-hole score at the Wells Fargo Championship by two strokes (13-under 203, Anthony Kim, 2008). His 72-hole total of 15-under 273, shared with Lucas Glover, is one shy of the tournament 72-hole record held by 2008 winner Kim. Finished T7 at the Memorial, marking his second top 10 at the event (T3 in 2009) in nine career starts. Played in the final group with Steve Stricker, but a final round, 1-over dropped him down the leader board. Entered the PGA TOUR Playoffs with a T59 at the World Golf Championships-Bridgestone Invitational as his only made cut in his previous six starts. But a solo fifth-place finish at The Barclays allowed him to jump to No. 12 in the FedExCup standings. The finish represented his fifth top 10 of the season.

Highlights

Earned first PGA TOUR victory during the PGA TOUR Fall Series at the Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open

Personal

Laird comes from a sporting family, as his cousin David Weatherston plays association football currently for Dumfries club Queen of the South. He was coached at Colorado State by Jamie Bermel, who was Masters champion Zach Johnson's coach at Drake University. Laird played his first event as a professional in his native Scotland at the 2009 Scottish Open, shooting 65 in the first round and finishing 10th. Laird has the flag of his home country, Scotland, on his golf belt, golf bag and the tees he uses.

Other Information

By winning the Justin Timberlake Shriners Hospitals for Children Open, Laird became the first Scot to win a PGA Tour event in America since Sandy Lyle won the 1988 Masters Tournament, and the first Scotsman to win any PGA Tour event since Paul Lawrie's 1999 Open Championship triumph.

Laird also became the highest ranked Scot in the Official World Golf Rankings.
