the Memorial Tournament presented by Workday notes

The field includes:

- 30 of the top 30 in the FedExCup standings
- Nine of the top 10 in the Official World Golf Ranking
- Eight FedExCup Champions
- Six past winners of the Memorial Tournament presented by Workday
- 15 major championship winners
- 59 PGA TOUR winners
- 73 players (36-hole cut for the low 50 and ties or any player within 10 strokes of the leader)
- Following his victory in 2023, Viktor Hovland went on to win the FedExCup at the end of the season; the only other winners of the Memorial Tournament who won the FedExCup in the same season were Patrick Cantlay (2021) and Tiger Woods (2009); with a win, Hovland would join Woods as the only players to win the Memorial Tournament in consecutive years
- Four different players (six instances) have won the Memorial Tournament and THE PLAYERS Championship or a major championship in the same season, and Scottie Scheffler (2024 PLAYERS Championship, 2024 Masters Tournament) and Xander Schauffele (2024 PGA Championship) can join them with a win this week; the other players to accomplish the feat are Raymond Floyd (1982), Curtis Strange (1988), Paul Azinger (1993) and Tiger Woods (1999, 2000, 2001)
- This week marks the 10th anniversary of Hideki Matsuyama's victory at the 2014 Memorial Tournament, the first of his nine PGA TOUR titles; Matsuyama is one two players that have won this tournament in their debut (Roger Maltbie/1976)
- With 70.32 (minimum 10 rounds), Patrick Cantlay has the best scoring average at this event; a third victory at the Memorial Tournament for Cantlay (2019, 2021) would see him join Kenny Perry (1991, 2003, 2008) with the second-most in tournament history, behind Tiger Woods (1999, 2000, 2001, 2009, 2012)
- A top-10 finish by past champions Justin Rose or Matt Kuchar this week would mark the eighth at the Memorial Tournament for either player, one back of the record nine shared by Tiger Woods and Jay Haas
- Lucas Glover makes his 20th consecutive appearance at the Memorial Tournament, the longest active streak by any player
- Muirfield Village Golf Club has hosted the Memorial Tournament presented by Workday annually since the inaugural event in 1976; also hosted 1992 U.S. Amateur, 1987 Ryder Cup, 1998 Solheim Cup, 1986 U.S. Junior Amateur and 2013 Presidents Cup; only course in the United States to host the Ryder Cup, Solheim Cup and Presidents Cup; since last year's tournament, the tee box at the par-3 16th hole has been relocated and a greenside bunker removed

- Olympic gold medalist in 2020, Xander Schauffele makes his first start since winning his first major championship at the 2024 PGA Championship; enters this week on a TOUR-leading streak of 47 consecutive made cuts, with Scheffler second on the list with 37; missed the cut in his first of six appearances at the Memorial Tournament followed by five top-25 results

- Auburn University freshman Jackson Koivun makes his PGA TOUR debut after being named the 2024 Jack Nicklaus Award winner as the best Division I college golfer and receiving a sponsor exemption into the Memorial Tournament; Auburn, the No.1 ranked team in the nation, defeated Florida State in the final to win the NCAA National Championship last week
