Pre-Tournament Notes - 2024 Travelers Championship

TOUR season notes

- With his win at the Memorial Tournament presented by Workday, Scottie Scheffler captured his 11th PGA TOUR title and fifth of the season, becoming the first player to win five times in a season on TOUR before the U.S. Open since Tom Watson in 1980. Scheffler is also the seventh player since 1983 (16th instance) to win five or more times in a single season on TOUR and first since Justin Thomas in 2016-17 (5)
- 2024 PGA Championship winner Xander Schauffele is coming off a T7 finish at the U.S. Open, one of only two players (Bryson DeChambeau) to have finished in the top-10 in each of this year's three major championships (8th/Masters Tournament)
- With 5,068 FedExCup points, Scottie Scheffler has a 1,951-point lead over Xander Schauffele in the FedExCup standings
- All Signature Event winners this season, except for Rory McIlroy who withdrew on Monday afternoon, are in the field: Chris Kirk (The Sentry), Wyndham Clark (AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am), Hideki Matsuyama (The Genesis Invitational), Scottie Scheffler (Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by Mastercard, RBC Heritage, the Memorial Tournament presented by Workday); McIlroy won the Wells Fargo Championship

Travelers Championship notes

The field includes:

- 29 of the top 30 in the FedExCup standings
- Seven of the top eight in the Official World Golf Ranking
- Six FedExCup Champions
- Four past winners of the Travelers Championship
- 16 major championship winners
- 59 PGA TOUR winners
- The Travelers Championship is the last of eight Signature Events during the 2024 PGA TOUR Season; contested the week after the U.S. Open, 64 of the 71 players in this week's field competed at Pinehurst No. 2
- Course enhancements at TPC River Highlands include the following: fairway widths reduced on Nos. 1, 6, 12, and 13; primary rough added to the downhill slope on No. 12; mounding in the right rough drive zone on No. 6, the right side of No. 9 green and the left side of No. 13; green surfaces reduced on Nos. 9 and 11; teeing ground enlarged and moved to the right on No. 9
- Keegan Bradley holds or shares the 36- (125), 54- (189) and 72-hole (257) tournament scoring records following his 2023 Travelers Championship victory; since his win, Bradley has posted two runner-up results, losing to Grayson Murray in a three-way playoff (Byeong Hun An) at the 2024 Sony Open in Hawaii and tying with Scottie Scheffler five strokes back of winner Davis Riley at the 2024 Charles Schwab Challenge; following his victory, Bradley advanced to the TOUR Championship at the end of the season; the only player to win the Travelers Championship and the FedExCup in the same season is Dustin Johnson (2020)
- Two-time major champion Collin Morikawa made his third PGA TOUR start as a professional at the 2019 Travelers Championship as a sponsor exemption and finished T36, the only time he has made the cut at this event (three appearances); the following month he claimed his first of six TOUR titles at the 2019 Barracuda Championship; comes in to this week off three top-five results in his last four starts (T4/PGA Championship, 4th/Charles Schwab Challenge, 2nd/the Memorial Tournament presented by Workday, T14/U.S. Open)
- As a Signature Event, the tournament grants four sponsor exemptions to PGA TOUR members:
 - Billy Horschel (2014 FedExCup Champion; best Travelers Championship finish/T24/2012)
 - Adam Scott (2013 Masters Tournament; best Travelers Championship finish/T13/2021)
 - Webb Simpson (2012 U.S. Open; best Travelers Championship finish/T5/2013)
 - Michael Thorbjornsen (2024 PGA TOUR University No. 1; best Travelers Championship finish/4th/2022)

- Former Stanford University standout Michael Thorbjornsen is now a PGA TOUR member after finishing No. 1 in PGA TOUR University, the second player in history to earn membership via this route (Ludvig Åberg); has played eight PGA TOUR events as an amateur, including the 2022 Travelers Championship where he finished fourth; makes his professional debut this week; PGA TOUR debut was 2019 U.S. Open where he finished 79th; most recent TOUR start was 2023 John Deere Classic (T17)

Top player notes

- World No. 1 Scottie Scheffler is the only player with multiple wins in Signature Events this season (Arnold Palmer Invitational presented by Mastercard, RBC Heritage, the Memorial Tournament presented by Workday); won five of his last nine starts on TOUR and finished outside the top 10 twice in 14 starts this season (T17/The American Express, T41/U.S. Open); Scheffler (5) and Rory McIlroy (2) are the only multiple winners on TOUR this season
- 2022 Travelers Championship winner and Olympic gold medalist in 2020, Xander Schauffele makes his sixth appearance at TPC River Highlands where he has three scores of 63 in 18 rounds; won his first major championship at the 2024 PGA Championship; enters this week on a TOUR-leading streak of 49 consecutive made cuts, with Scheffler second on the list with 39
- Corey Connors and Mark Hubbard have both made 17 cuts in 17 starts this season; Connors has made one cut in three appearances at the Travelers Championship (T9/2023) while Hubbard has missed one cut in six appearances at TPC River Highlands (MC/2023); Hubbard seeks his first TOUR victory (last player to make the Travelers Championship his first TOUR title: Ken Duke/2013); Hubbard is one of 12 players in the field this week yet to win on TOUR

Aon Next 10 and Aon Swing 5

- Aon Next 10: The top 10 players in the FedExCup standings (not otherwise exempt) through U.S. Open, all in the field
Ludvig Åberg earned a sponsor exemption to compete at the 2023 Travelers Championship and finished T24; last week, Åberg held the 36-hole lead at the U.S. Open before finishing T12
Matthieu Pavon earned his first career top-10 finish in a major at the U.S. Open (5th) where he played in the final pairing on Sunday, moving him up to a career-high No. 20 in the Official World Golf Ranking and up to No. 11 in the FedExCup standings
- Aon Swing 5: The top FedExCup points earners (not otherwise exempt) from the Myrtle Beach Classic, Charles Schwab Challenge and RBC Canadian Open: Robert MacIntyre, Davis Riley, Ben Griffin, Chris Gotterup, Victor Perez
RBC Canadian Open champion Robert MacIntyre will make his Signature Event debut after electing not to compete at the Memorial Tournament presented by Workday
