Extended forecast – Anticipate dry conditions on Monday under a mix of sun and clouds with east-northeasterly winds at 7-12 mph. A stray shower cannot be ruled out Tuesday afternoon with relatively light east-northeasterly winds set to continue. A cold front bring scattered areas of rain on Wednesday, but the exact timing of this precipitation remains in lower confidence. Additionally anticipate north-northeasterly winds of 20-25 mph along with gusts near 30 mph.
