Today – Mostly dry through the morning and into the early afternoon hours today. Still looking at a chance for some showers and isolated storms popping up around 3-4pm this afternoon. The premise remains the same, with any activity likely being isolated and short-lived if they do hit the golf course. Highest chances should hopefully hold off until 4pm or later. Winds remain light for the final round, with winds under 10 mph expected once again.

Total Rainfall: 0.05-0.25".

Monday – Similar forecast to today. Low chance for a passing shower in the morning, but mostly dry conditions expected through the early afternoon. After 2pm, there will be more chances for pop up showers and isolated storms, with those chances likely continuing through sundown. No strong storms or severe weather expected. Winds will be low once again, with up to 10 mph expected.

Total Rainfall: 0.05-0.20".
