MEDICAL EXTENSION SUMMARY

If a player earns the points required to reach the top 125 threshold, he is eligible to play the remainder of the season out of the Major Medical category. If a player earns the points required to reach the top 150 threshold, but falls short of top 125, he is eligible to play the remainder of the season out of the 126-150 category, subject to reshuffle. If he does not reach either of these thresholds, he will fall back into the highest category for which he is eligible, or lose status.

Medical extension storylines - ONEflight Myrtle Beach Classic

2018 PGA TOUR Rookie of the Year Aaron Wise is making his first of 26 starts available on a Major Medical Extension after being limited to one start in 2024 (MC/Puerto Rico Open). Wise earned a two-year exemption by qualifying for the 2022 TOUR Championship and is looking to match No. 125 in the 2024 FedExCup standings (419.861 points).

Scott Gutschewski is making the final start on his Minor Medical Extension and needs to win to retain status on the PGA TOUR. He is fully exempt on the Korn Ferry Tour this season out of the Tournament Winner category.
