Miscellaneous Notes

- The largest come-from-behind win after 54 holes at the PGA Championship is seven shots (John Mahaffey/1978, Justin Thomas/2022)
- One week before his title defense at the Charles Schwab Challenge, Davis Riley (T3/-7) trails by four in bid for his first major championship title in eight starts (best finish: T13/2022 PGA Championship); previous-best 54-hole position in a major championship is T10 (2022 PGA Championship/T13)
- J.T. Poston (T3/-7) has yet to record a top-25 finish in 17 prior major championship starts; best finish in a major came at the 2024 Masters Tournament (T30)
- Jon Rahm (T5/-6) is five behind Scheffler in bid for third major championship title (2021 U.S. Open, 2023 Masters Tournament); eight players have won a Masters Tournament, U.S. Open and PGA Championship during their career, with Rory McIlroy the most recent to do so
- One day after recording the longest ace in major championship history (252 yards on No. 6), Si Woo Kim (T5/-6) cards an even-par 71 and trails by five; the last player to have an ace at a major championship and go on to win is David Toms at the 2001 PGA Championship at Atlanta Athletic Club (R3/No. 15)
- Jhonattan Vegas (T5/-6) records a third-round 73 to fall five behind Scheffler; would become the seventh player to carry the outright lead after the first and second rounds of a PGA Championship to victory (most recent: Xander Schauffele/2024)
