

WISCONSIN

TPC Wisconsin

2025 American Family Insurance Championship Notes

- After joining the TPC Network in 2023, TPC Wisconsin went through a renovation led by 12-time PGA TOUR winner, 18-time PGA TOUR Champions winner and Madison-resident, Steve Stricker, who was aided by Steve Wenzlo, senior vice president of design services at the PGA TOUR.
 - Included re-grading the course to accent advancements to the game of golf by repositioning features and rebuilding all the infrastructure including greens, tees and bunkers.
- TPC Wisconsin's owner, Dennis Tiziani is a former PGA TOUR member, former head coach of the Wisconsin Badgers men's and women's golf teams and a member of the Wisconsin Golf Hall of Fame.
- TPC Wisconsin incorporated significant environmental improvements throughout the redesign of the golf course.
 - Restored over 35 acres of degraded on-site wetlands to improve floral diversity, pollinator habitat, and grassland bird nesting areas
 - Features extensive waterways and water features that underwent rehabilitation to improve water quality, fisheries and amphibian habitat, and other aquatic species diversity
- TPC Wisconsin has two course dogs, Mulligan and Auggie , who belongs to superintendent. Their responsibilities include wildlife management and staff morale.
- A couple NHL call TPC Wisconsin home – Joe Pavelski (retired NHL player of 18 seasons) and Ryan Suter (20-year NHL Veteran currently playing for the St Louis Blues).