Tournament Preview

PGA TOUR Champions remains in the Midwest this week for the ninth edition of the American Family Insurance Championship in Madison, Wisconsin and is set to introduce a first-of-its-kind team format as the tournament makes its debut at TPC Wisconsin.

The tournament will feature 38 two-man teams competing over three days, including two days of best ball competition, with Saturday's second round highlighted by scramble play – a first in Champions Tour history. Past champions of this event include tournament host Steve Stricker, Madison resident Jerry Kelly, and World Golf Hall of Fame member Ernie Els, who will return this week to defend his title alongside partner Tim Herron.

Miguel Ángel Jiménez enters the week atop the Charles Schwab Cup standings, aiming for his fourth win in 12 starts this season. A victory would make him just the second player this year to win back-to-back events since Angel Cabrera's recent consecutive senior major titles.
