Things to Know

- Australia's Steve Allan recorded his second win of the 2025 PGA TOUR Champions season at the DICK'S Open with an 18-under total and a tournament-record four-shot victory over Jason Caron.
- International players have now won 13 of 16 events in the 2025 Champions Tour season.

Steve Allan, 63-69-66—198 (-18)

- Earns his second win of the 2025 season following his breakthrough victory at The Galleri Classic, which snapped a winless streak of 22 years, 4 months, 6 days dating back to the 2002 Holden Australian Open.
- Won with son Joey caddying for him after notching his Galleri Classic victory with son Liam on the bag.
- Win comes at the age of 51 years, 8 months, and 25 days.
- Becomes the first wire-to-wire champion in DICK'S Open history.
- Four-shot victory marks the largest margin in tournament history, breaking the previous record of three shots (R.W. Eaks/2007, Eduardo Romero/2008, John Huston/2011, Pádraig Harrington/2022)
- Becomes the third player with multiple victories in 2025 (4/Miguel Ángel Jiménez, 3/Ángel Cabrera).
- Improves to 2-for-2 in converting 36-hole leads in his Champions Tour career (2025 Galleri Classic, Won).
- First-round 63 marks the lowest opening round by a winner in DICK'S Open history (previously 65, twice); becomes the first 18-hole leader to win the event since Doug Barron in 2019.
- Becomes the eighth second-round leader/co-leader to win this event: R.W. Eaks (2007), Eduardo Romero (2008), Bart Bryant (2013) Paul Goydos (2016), Scott McCarron (2017), Doug Barron (2019) and Padraig Harrington (2024).
- Victory marks the third top-10 finish of his 2025 Champions Tour season, and the sixth of his career.
