

K.J. CHOI (Round 3)

Runner-up finish, K.J. Give us your overall thoughts on the week?

Every hole, good fight this week. Difficult to control iron shot and tee shot. Even putting difficult, with the grain and windy. How much to make calculations. I stayed patient. Today, much better. I have good fight.

A little disappointed to three-putt the last hole, but solo second is good.

Can you talk about the battle that you had today with Angel?

He's a long time on the PGA Tour and PGA Tour Champions. First two wins were majors. His game is different. More temperament and technique. He was fighting good this week.
