

ROUND 3 QUICK QUOTES
October 12, 2025

SCOTT DUNLAP (. +7)

Q. Not the finish that you wanted, I'm sure.

SCOTT DUNLAP: No.

Q. Probably not the way you wanted to go out here at SAS, beautiful day like today.

SCOTT DUNLAP: You can't order up the weather. We talked last week, you know, when it's time, it's time. It's been a whole lot better run than I ever thought it would be, and looking forward to the next thing, which won't be making three-footers (inaudible).

Q. So, it is time?

SCOTT DUNLAP: Absolutely, yeah. I mean, you know, you age out. I saw it when I got out here, guys that were near the end, and lo and behold it happened to me.

Q. What will you miss?

SCOTT DUNLAP: You know, it's always fun to compete but it hasn't been fun to not play well. That's why I'll leave with a big smile on my face because it hasn't really been what I would call fun for a while. You know, more like a job. It always is a job, it's what we do, but it's fun to compete when you think you have a chance. But you're a little broken and not really competitive and you're just taking up a spot, you know it's time to move on.

Q. Can you sum up your career for me?

SCOTT DUNLAP: Well, I feel like I robbed a bank. This post-50 thing has been amazing. Did OK on the PGA TOUR, not a great career, had to go to the qualifying school to make it.

My time out here has been a blessing. It's been great to catch back up with some guys that I didn't really know that well because I didn't play the Tour that consistently. You know, seven, eight years and those guys were out there for 20-some odd, guys I knew and liked, I didn't know them that well and I had a chance to get to know them. Make a whole lot more money playing golf post-50, I can't think of any other sport where this opportunity avails itself to somebody. I couldn't be happier. Now it's time to go have some fun.

Q. You will be missed.

SCOTT DUNLAP: Well, awfully kind.
