Today – A frontal boundary will still near the Tampa area today with showers likely developing in vicinity of this front. While there is at least a low threat for showers much of the day, the overall highest threat is expected between 12-5pm. A strike of lightning can't be ruled out but would remain sparse in nature. A south to west wind is expected much of the day with gusts of 15-20 mph possible. Forecast rainfall: Less than 0.25". Sunrise: 7:08am / Sunset: 5:35pm
