Turk Pettit rose to No. 48 on the 2026 Korn Ferry Tour Points List with a T5 at last week's UNC Health Championship, his second top-five finish in the last three events (T4/Colonial Life Charity Classic). Pettit, a Clemson University alum who earned individual medalist honors at the 2021 NCAA Championship, earned Korn Ferry Tour membership for 2026 by virtue of qualifying for Final Stage of 2025 PGA TOUR Q-School presented by Korn Ferry.

Phillips has finished in the top 75 of the Korn Ferry Tour Points List for three consecutive seasons, with his best finish being No. 27 last year. Phillips plays from Inman, South Carolina and was a three-time Jay Haas Player of the Year Award winner (2015, 2016, 2017) -- which recognizes the South Carolina Junior Golf Association Player of the Year.

Doc Redman is within 33 points of the No. 1 position on the 2026 Korn Ferry Tour Points List with wins at the Astara Chile Classic presented by Scotiabank and Visit Knoxville Open. The 2017 U.S. Amateur Championship winner, Redman played two seasons at Clemson University (2016-18), where he earned two individual victories and broke the school record for career scoring average.
