FedExCup and the FedExCup Playoffs

- The 2026 PGA TOUR Season marks the 20th edition of the FedExCup (established in 2007), a season-long points competition which culminates with the FedExCup Playoffs, a series of three events to determine the FedExCup Champion
- The winners of the first two FedExCup Playoffs events will earn 750 points (the same amount of points as THE PLAYERS Championship and majors), which is down from 2,000 in previous years. As part of the change to the TOUR Championship format in 2025, the reduction in FedExCup points available at the first two Playoffs events places added emphasis on regular-season performance.
- The three events in the FedExCup Playoffs feature a progressive cut with fields of 70 (FedEx St. Jude Championship), 50 (BMW Championship) and 30 (TOUR Championship)
 - The top 70 players in the FedExCup standings are fully exempt for all full-field events and THE PLAYERS Championship in 2027
 - The top 50 players are exempt for all Signature Events in 2027
 - The top 30 players receive a two-year exemption and invitations to majors that traditionally recognize the top 30
- Top 50 bubble – Following the FedEx St. Jude Championship, the top 50 players in the FedExCup will advance to the BMW Championship:
