Rory McIlroy (Won/-12)

- Wins second Masters Tournament, sixth major championship and 30th PGA TOUR title in his 279th PGA TOUR start at 36 years, 11 months, 8 days
- Joins Jack Nicklaus (1965, 1966), Nick Faldo (1989, 1990) and Tiger Woods (2001, 2002) as players to successfully defend their title at the Masters Tournament
- Becomes fourth player (seven instances) in the last 25 years to win the same major championship in back-to-back fashion (Tiger Woods (2001-02 Masters, 2005-06 Open Championship, 2006-07 PGA Championship), Pádraig Harrington (2007-08 Open Championship), Brooks Koepka (2017-18 U.S. Open, 2018-19 PGA Championship)
- Joins Lee Trevino, Nick Faldo and Phil Mickelson as players with six major championships (T12 all time); only 11 players have more than six major championships
- 30th PGA TOUR victory ties Horton Smith (T16 all time)
- Third major championship since 1986 in which the two top finishers, in either order, were the first and second ranked players in the Official World Golf Ranking: 2002 U.S. Open (Tiger Woods/Phil Mickelson), 1991 Masters Tournament (Ian Woosnam/Jose Maria Olazabal)
- Earns 750 FedExCup points and moves from No. 31 to No. 7 in the FedExCup Points standings
- Now 13-for-22 in 54-hole lead/co-leads in individual stroke play events on TOUR; eighth time with the 54-hole lead/co-lead at a major championship (6-for-8 in converting to the win)
- Held the 18-, 36- and 54-holes leads/co-leads en route to victory
- First player to successfully defend a title on the PGA TOUR this season
- Wins despite a double bogey in the final round for the second consecutive year; only other players to win the Masters Tournament with a double bogey in the final round in the last 30 years: Scottie Scheffler (2022), Trevor Immelman (2008)
- In 18 Masters appearances, has carded at least one over-par round in all but one Masters Tournament (2015/71-71-68-66)
- 31 of the last 36 Masters champions have come from the final pairing
- Surpasses $13 million in career earnings at the Masters Tournament, the most of any player in tournament history
- Seven of the last 11 major championships have been won by players who were ranked No. 3 or better in the Official World Golf Ranking heading into the major championship:

Miscellaneous Notes

- Scottie Scheffler (2nd/-11) cards 65-68 on the weekend and becomes the first player in the last 82 years (since 1942) to play the third and final rounds bogey-free at the Masters Tournament; shoots an under-par score in the final round at the Masters for the seventh consecutive time, tying Tom Watson (1977-1982) as the only players to achieve this feat; owns five consecutive top-10s at the Masters (2nd/2026, 4th/2025, Won/2024, T10/2023, Won/2022)
- Tyrrell Hatton (T3/-10) cards a final-round 66, his career low round at the Masters; records his best result at Augusta National and best result in any major championship
- Russell Henley (T3/-10), who celebrated his 37th birthday on Sunday, was attempting to become the first player to win the Masters Tournament on his birthday; last player to win a PGA TOUR event on their birthday: Steve Flesch/2004 Charles Schwab Challenge (May 23); records best finish in a major championship (previous: T4/2023 Masters Tournament)
- Justin Rose (T3/-10) was the only player in the field with four rounds under par this week
- Cameron Young (T3/-10) takes the No. 1 position in the FedExCup standings by a 5-point margin over Scottie Scheffler
- Collin Morikawa (T7/-9), making his first start on TOUR since withdrawing on his second hole of THE PLAYERS Championship with a back injury, sat T40 after an opening-round 74 before carding three rounds in the 60s (69-68-68); marks his first time with at least three sub-70 rounds in a single Masters
- En route to a final-round 66, Keegan Bradley (T21/-3) birdies No. 16 for the fourth time this week to become the third player in Masters history with four birdies at No. 16 in a single tournament: Bert Yancey (1968), Patrick Reed (2020)
- Finishing at 2-under T24, Sam Stevens, Chris Gotterup and Michael Brennan were the best of the eight first-time competitors who made the cut
- Past Masters champions: Rory McIlroy (1st/-12), Scottie Scheffler (2nd/-11), Patrick Reed (T12/-5), Hideki Matsuyama (T12/-5), Jordan Spieth (T12/-5), Adam Scott (T24/-2), Dustin Johnson (T33/E), Jon Rahm (T38/+1), Sergio Garcia (52nd/+8), Charl Schwartzel (54th/+12)
- Aon Next 10: The top 10 players in the FedExCup standings not otherwise exempt following the Masters Tournament qualify for next week's RBC Heritage through the Aon Next 10.
