PRESIDENTS CUP HISTORY

The 16th edition of the Presidents Cup will be contested at Medinah Country Club in Medinah, Illinois, marking the first time the iconic venue has hosted the biennial competition. U.S. Team Captain Brandt Snedeker and International Team Captain Geoff Ogilvy will both make their Presidents Cup captaincy debuts as they lead their teams in the battle for the Cup. With Medinah's championship pedigree providing the stage, the world's top players will descend on Chicago for what promises to be the largest event in PGA Tour history.

1994 – The 1994 Presidents Cup was the first in the event's illustrious history. Robert Trent Jones Golf Club in Prince William County, Virginia, USA, welcomed the 38th President of the United States, Gerald R. Ford, as Honorary Chairman, and World Golf Hall of Fame members Hale Irwin (United States Team) and David Graham (International Team) as team captains. The U.S. Team was the first to etch its name onto the Cup after winning the inaugural event, 20-12.

1996 – The 1996 Presidents Cup reigned as the closest score – aside from 2003's tie – until 2015. With Arnold Palmer at the helm, the United States Team edged Peter Thomson's International Team 16.5-15.5 at the Robert Trent Jones Golf Club in Prince William County, Virginia, USA. The Honorary Chairman for the event was the 41st President of the United States George H.W. Bush.

1998 – The 1998 Presidents Cup was one of victory for the International Team under the direction of Peter Thomson. For the first time in the event's history, the Internationals defeated the United States Team and Jack Nicklaus, who was serving as captain for the first of four terms, 20.5-11.5 in the second-largest margin of victory in the Cup's history. The Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia, hosted the event for the first time, and Prime Minister of Australia John Howard was appointed the Honorary Chairman.

2000 – The 2000 Presidents Cup was the end of an era for the International Team as they followed the leadership of three-time captain Peter Thomson for the final time. Ken Venturi led the U.S. Team in the event held at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club in Prince William County, Virginia, USA. The 42nd President of the United States, Bill Clinton, acted as the Honorary Chairman for the event, which crowned the U.S. Team victors in decisive fashion, 21.5-10.5.

PRESIDENTS CUP HISTORY

2003 – The 2003 Presidents Cup ventured to George, South Africa, for the first time, fittingly, as the nation is home to Gary Player, who led the International Team for the first time in a contest against Jack Nicklaus' United States Team. The host venue, The Links at Fancourt Hotel and Country Club Estate, witnessed the first tie in Presidents Cup history, and the Republic of South Africa President Thabo Mbeki served as the Honorary Chairman.

2005 – The 2005 Presidents Cup crowned a Jack Nicklaus-led United States Team champions with an 18.5-15.5 decision over a Gary Player-led International Team. Robert Trent Jones Golf Club in Prince William County, Virginia, USA, hosted the event for the fourth time in the competition's history and the 43rd President of the United States, George W. Bush, acted as the Honorary Chairman.

2007 – The 2007 Presidents Cup marked the third and final time legendary captains Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player would lead the U.S. and International Teams, respectively. The Prime Minister of Canada Stephen Harper served as the Honorary Chairman for the event held in Montreal, Quebec, Canada, at The Royal Montreal Golf Club. In the end, the United States would retain the Cup after a 19.5-14.5 score, but Canadian hero Mike Weir sent his local supporters home happy with a 1-up Singles victory over Tiger Woods.

2009 – The 2009 Presidents Cup showcased a U.S. Team led by Fred Couples defeating the International Team captained by Greg Norman, with Tiger Woods having one of the most memorable appearances in tournament history with a 5-0-0 record and leading the U.S. Team to victory by a margin of 19.5-14.5. The Cup was contested at TPC Harding Park in San Francisco, California, USA and welcomed the 44th President of the United States, Barack Obama as the Honorary Chairman.

PRESIDENTS CUP HISTORY

2011 – In 2011, the Presidents Cup descended upon The Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia, for the second time in the event's history, offering a 2009 rematch of the U.S. Team's Captain Fred Couples against an International Team once again led by Greg Norman. Ultimately, the U.S. Team retained the Cup with a wire-to-wire 19-15 decision with Jim Furyk delivering a perfect 5-0-0 record to solidify the finish. Prime Minister of Australia, Julia Gillard, served as Honorary Chairwoman, marking the first time in event history a woman held the role.

2013 – The 2013 Presidents Cup welcomed the 44th President of the United States Barack Obama as Honorary Chairman of the event for a second time, the first world leader to hold that distinction more than once. The event teed off at Muirfield Village Golf Club in Dublin, Columbus, Ohio, USA. Fred Couples and Nick Price assumed captains' duties for the U.S. Team and the International Team, respectively. In the end, it was the U.S. Team's Cup to keep after a decisive 18.5-15.5 victory, with Tiger Woods earning the deciding point for the United States for the third consecutive time.

2015 – The 2015 Presidents Cup was contested in Songdo, IBD, Incheon City, South Korea, at Jack Nicklaus Golf Club Korea, marking the event's first trip to South Korea. The U.S. Team was led by Jay Haas and at the helm of the International Team was two-time captain Nick Price. The U.S. Team clinched the final point on the final hole to win 15.5-14.5. The Honorary Chairwoman of the event was Korean President Park Guen-hye.

2017 – For the first time in the event's history, three former United States presidents – George W. Bush, Bill Clinton and Barack Obama – and the current U.S. President and Honorary Chairman, Donald Trump, were on site for the 2017 Presidents Cup, held at Liberty National Golf Club in Jersey City, New Jersey, USA. The International Team welcomed Captain Nick Price back for a third term, while the U.S. Team was led by Steve Stricker. Following the four-day competition on the banks of the Hudson River, the U.S. Team delivered a decisive victory by a 19-11 margin.

PRESIDENTS CUP HISTORY

2019 – The magic in Melbourne inspired what could be considered as the most exciting Presidents Cup in history at The Royal Melbourne Golf Club in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia. In a historic effort, Captain Ernie Els led the Internationals to the lead after round one by a 4-1 margin. After fighting back through the next three sessions, the Tiger Woods-led United States Team edged the Internationals in a dramatic Sunday Singles comeback, winning eight of the 12 available points to retain the Cup. The Honorary Chairman of the event was Prime Minister of Australia, Scott Morrison.

2022 – The U.S. Team won the 14th Presidents Cup, defeating the International Team by a 17.5-12.5 margin at Quail Hollow Club in Charlotte, North Carolina, USA. The Americans improved to 12-1-1 all-time in the biennial competition, remaining undefeated on home soil at 8-0-0. Entering Sunday Singles with an 11-7 advantage over the International Team, Captain Davis Love III's squad weathered an early opposing surge with consistent play across the board in front of the event's largest crowd in history. The 46th President of the United States, Joe Biden, was the Honorary Chairman.

2024 – The 2024 Presidents Cup marked the 15th edition of the biennial team competition between the United States and the International Team. Returning to the historic Royal Montreal Golf Club for the first time since 2007, the event featured U.S. Team Captain Jim Furyk and International Team Captain Mike Weir, who became the first Canadian to captain the International side. The opening two days delivered high-intensity competition, with the United States gaining early momentum through a dominant 5-0 sweep in the Four-Ball matches. The International Team responded in dramatic fashion with its own 5-0 sweep in Foursomes, leveling the overall score heading into Saturday. In the end, the U.S. Team successfully defended the Presidents Cup, defeating the International Team 18.5-11.5. The tournament's Honorary Chairman was Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau, who helped welcome the Presidents Cup back to Canada.

Saturday Morning: 4 Four-ball matches	Saturday Afternoon: 4 Foursomes matches
Sunday: 12 Singles matches

PRESIDENTS CUP FACT SHEET

All matches are worth one point for a total of 30 points. There are no playoffs, with each side receiving a half point if a match is tied after 18 holes. In a change inspired by the events of the 2003 Presidents Cup, if the competition is deadlocked at the end of Singles play the competition will be deemed a tie and the teams will share the Presidents Cup.

FORMAT CHANGE:

In 2019, a minor format change was implemented, stating each player shall only be required to play a minimum of one match prior to the Sunday Singles matches. This was a change from previous years when players were required to compete in two matches prior to Singles matches.

IMPACT:

Since the inception of the Presidents Cup in 1994, more than $56.5 million has been generated from event proceeds. Over the past 27 years, the Presidents Cup has impacted more than 475 charities in 18 countries worldwide.

TROPHY:

Created by Tiffany & Company, the Presidents Cup trophy weighs a total of 28 pounds. The trophy is spun by a spinner from five sterling silver circles into five different shapes. The spun components then are put together by a silversmith to create the Cup. The smith runs a roller die to create the beaded embellishment that goes around the Cup and the foot of the trophy. The oval logo is etched and applied to the Cup. Labor dedicated to creating the trophy totaled 80 hours. The entire trophy is vermeil in 24-carat gold, and the original trophy is housed at the PGA Tour's Global Headquarters in Ponte Vedra Beach, Florida.

MEDINAH NO. 3 HOLE-BY-HOLE

The 16th edition of the Presidents Cup will be contested at Medinah Country Club in Medinah, Illinois, marking the first time the iconic venue has hosted the biennial competition. U.S. Team Captain Brandt Snedeker and International Team Captain Geoff Ogilvy will both make their Presidents Cup captaincy debuts as they lead their teams in the battle for the Cup. With Medinah's championship pedigree providing the stage, the world's top players will descend on Chicago for what promises to be the largest event in PGA Tour history.

HOLE 1 | PAR 4

The split-rail fence follows the left side and turns out of bounds into a constant reference. Working closer to it can open the view into the green, but the reward must match your normal dispersion. A safer drive to the right leaves more work and a partially obscured approach. This is member Hole 5.

HOLE 2 | PAR 4

The fairway is generous, yet the left boundary still influences every decision. Playing farther right reduces the danger from the fence but lengthens the approach. The green is one of the largest on the course, so simply reaching it does not guarantee an easy two-putt; the correct section matters. This is member Hole 6.

HOLE 3 | PAR 5

A central fairway bunker divides the hole into distinct routes. The second shot should be planned from the tee: advance only from a good lie; otherwise, place the ball where the final approach is comfortable. The heavily bunkered green is best approached from the left side of the fairway, making position more valuable than squeezing every possible yard from the layup. This is member Hole 7.

HOLE 4 | PAR 4

The diagonal bunker complex guards the shortest line on this compact par 4, and the green is one of the smallest on the course. The aggressive play can leave a simple pitch, but only if you can carry or work around the sand with control. A layup to the wider side leaves a fuller approach but removes the biggest number. This is member Hole 8.

HOLE 5 | PAR 4

Length is only the first challenge. Fairway bunkering asks for an accurate drive, while a central mound and subtle contours shape the approach. When a long club is required, the flag is often the wrong target; the front or broad side of the green gives the ball room to use the ground and keeps the miss manageable. This is member Hole 9.

HOLE 6 | PAR 5

Historic oaks frame the left side, and bunkers influence both the drive and the layup. The best second shot is not necessarily the longest one; it is the shot that finds a clean angle and a trusted approach yardage into a subtly contoured green. This is member Hole 10.

HOLE 7 | PAR 3

The downhill tee shot plays to a green shaped with the property's left-to-right movement. A ball landing on the correct shoulder can use the contour to move toward the hole, while a shot fired directly at the flag may release away from it. Elevation, wind, and bounce deserve as much attention as the number. This is member Hole 11.

HOLE 8 | PAR 4

The hole travels through a rolling valley to an elevated green above Lake Kadijah. The climb can tempt players to add too much club, but small pot bunkers behind the green punish the overcorrection. The preserved oak frames the shot and can distort depth, so the carry number must stay more important than the view. This is member Hole 12.

HOLE 12 | PAR 4

The fairway sweeps diagonally across Lake Kadijah, so every player chooses the amount of water to carry. The bold line can shorten the hole; the conservative line offers more fairway but leaves a longer approach. At the green, water guards the right and deep bunkering protects the left, making the center a valuable target. This is member Hole 16.

HOLE 9 | PAR 3

The yardage is modest, but the target sits beside Lake Kadijah with steep falloffs around the green. From some tees the putting surface can be partly hidden, making trust in the number essential. Edge hole locations invite an unnecessary gamble; the center of the green leaves a putt and takes the steepest consequences out of play. This is member Hole 13.

HOLE 13 | PAR 3

This long par 3 crosses Lake Kadijah on a diagonal to an elevated green. Water remains in view for most of the flight, with bunkers short and long narrowing the useful distance window. A ball missing left can move toward the lake; short-right offers the most practical recovery, while long-right leaves a delicate pitch back toward the water. This is member Hole 17.

HOLE 10 | PAR 4

Mature oaks frame the dogleg, while fairway bunkers guard the direct route. Challenging the inside can shorten the approach, but only when the required carry fits your normal tee shot. The wider outside route asks for more club into the green but keeps the hole in front of you. This is member Hole 14.

HOLE 14 | PAR 4

The par 4 begins with a carry over water and fairway bunkers on both sides. Choose the tee line by the carry you can comfortably cover, then decide whether the second shot truly earns an advance toward the green. The flagpole behind the putting surface supplies an aiming point. This is member Hole 18.

HOLE 11 | PAR 4

Improved visibility from the tee makes the dogleg easier to read, but the boomerang-shaped green turns the approach into the real puzzle. Its separate sections play like smaller greens joined together; a shot to the middle can still finish on the wrong side of a ridge. Begin with the day's hole location, then choose the tee line that opens that section. This is member Hole 15.

HOLE 15 | PAR 4

The fairway looks broad, but the left fairway bunkers begin to squeeze the useful landing area. Choose a club and line that finish comfortably short of or beyond the sand rather than level with it. The rebuilt green sits naturally in the ground and opens the view toward Lake Kadijah; from the fairway, distance control matters more than flag hunting. This is member Hole 1.

HOLE 16 | PAR 3

Lake Kadijah is present before the club leaves the bag. The elevated green and stone-edged shoreline make the carry look demanding, while alternate tee angles can change the picture from day to day. Pick the section of green your natural flight can hold, take enough club for the front edge, and resist aiming farther away from the water than the shot requires. This is member Hole 2.

HOLE 17 | PAR 4

Rugged, irregular bunkers break up the view and make the landing area harder to read than its width suggests. Select one bunker edge as a reference, commit to a specific fairway section, and let position set up the approach. Extra yards help only when they leave a clean angle into the green. This is member Hole 3.

HOLE 18 | PAR 4

This hole gives the driver room, then asks a sharper question at the green. Expanded short grass makes the tee shot feel generous, but restored bunkers tighten the approach and punish a ball played to the wrong side. Use the width to create the best view, then choose the green section that keeps the surrounding sand out of your normal miss. This is member Hole 4.
