Extended forecast– Drier and cooler air will provide below normal temperatures Friday with highs in the upper 60s to around 70F despite mostly sunny skies. There may be a passing shower Saturday morning, otherwise, partly cloudy skies and warmer temperatures can be expected with highs in the upper 70s. The next system will approach the region Sunday night into Monday. This may produce a few showers on Sunday, but the higher likelihood will be on Monday as the cold front moves through.
