- Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico native is making fifth consecutive start at the VidantaWorld Mexico Open, highlighted by a T13 finish in 2024, his best finish in 12 career PGA Tour starts
- Secured 2027 PGA Tour membership by finishing No. 5 on the 2026 Korn Ferry Tour Points List
- Recorded seven top-25s in 25 starts on the Korn Ferry Tour this year, highlighted by a pair of wins at the UNC Health Championship and the Simmons Bank Open for the Snedeker Foundation
- Earned his first PGA Tour-sanctioned title in March 2021 on PGA Tour Latinoamérica at the 61st Abierto Mexicano de Golf
- Played four seasons at University of Arkansas (2014-18), where he earned 2018 All-Southeastern Conference Second Team honors
- Amateur highlights also include a win at the 2019 Latin America Amateur Championship
- Emilio Gonzalez is currently the only player from Mexico with PGA Tour membership in 2026

Brian Campbell

- Won the 2025 VidantaWorld Mexico Open in a playoff over Aldrich Potgieter, earning his first PGA Tour title in his 28th start
- Seeks to become the first player to successfully defend his title at the VidantaWorld Mexico Open
- Missed the cut in his only other title defense attempt (winner of the 2025 John Deere Classic)
- Making first start of the FedExCup Fall and first since the 2026 Wyndham Championship in August (MC)
- Best finish in 23 starts this season: T24/Masters Tournament

Wyndham Clark

- Highest ranked player in the field at No. 5 in the Official World Golf Ranking
- Six-time PGA Tour winner, including three this season (THE CJ CUP Byron Nelson, U.S. Open, BMW Championship)
- Three wins are tied for the most wins by any player on Tour this season (Matt Fitzpatrick, Chris Gotterup, Scottie Scheffler)
- Making third start at the VidantaWorld Mexico Open (T67/2022, T24/2023)

VidantaWorld Mexico Open Notes

- The VidantaWorld Mexico Open shifts to the fall after being played in the spring portion of the season each of the first four editions
- VidantaWorld became the tournament's title sponsor in 2026 and the event was renamed the VidantaWorld Mexico Open
 - Grupo Vidanta now serves simultaneously as title sponsor, host venue and event operator
 - The tournament continues its partnership with the Mexican Golf Federation to have Mexico's national open featured on the PGA Tour schedule
- In its fifth year on the PGA Tour schedule, the VidantaWorld Mexico Open owns a rich history dating back to 1944, with Mexico's national open being sanctioned by the Tour on five occasions prior to 2022 (1953, 1954, 1959, 1965, 1966)
- The VidantaWorld Mexico Open is one of six national opens that offers FedExCup points: Puerto Rico Open, RBC Canadian Open, U.S. Open, Genesis Scottish Open and The Open Championship
- The 2026 edition introduces new course routing, designed to enhance the overall tournament experience; holes 18, 9, 1 and 10 will now sit within a centralized area, creating a more efficient player experience and convenient area for fans to congregate
- The 120-player field includes:
 - Three of the top 50 players in the Official World Golf Ranking: No. 5 Wyndham Clark, No. 28 Ben Griffin, No. 31 Tom Kim

- Three players in the field have won a tournament this season: Wyndham Clark (3), Steven Fisk, Tom Kim
- Two past champions in the field: Tony Finau (2023), Brian Campbell (2025)
- Five players in the field have competed every year of the VidantaWorld Mexico Open since its addition to the PGA Tour schedule in 2022: Aaron Baddeley, Emiliano Grillo, David Lipsky, Alvaro Ortiz, Patrick Rodgers
- 75 players in the field competed at last week's Butterfield Bermuda Championship, which was reduced to 54-holes due to weather, including six that finished inside the top 10: Taylor Moore (T3), Corey Connors (T6), Ben Silverman (T3), Chan Kim (T6), Danny Walker (T6), Chandler Blanchet (T6)
- Six players from Mexico in the field: Santiago de la Fuente, Alejandro Fierro, Mauricio Figueroa Ramirez, Gerardo Gomez, Omar Morales, Alvaro Ortiz

FedExCup Fall Notes

- The VidantaWorld Mexico Open is the fifth event of the 2026 FedExCup Fall, a series of eight tournaments played after the Tour Championship that finalizes eligibility for the 2027 PGA Tour Season
- Players look to secure their position inside the top 100 in the standings and become exempt on the PGA Tour for the 2027 season
- The FedExCup Fall also determines eligibility for early-season Signature Events, with Nos. 51-60 in the final FedExCup Fall standings earning spots in the 2027 AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am and 2027 Genesis Invitational
- In addition to the event purse, winners of FedExCup Fall events receive:
 - 500 FedExCup points and Official World Golf Ranking points
 - Two-year PGA Tour exemption, which will earn them membership on the PGA Tour Championship Series in 2028
 - Invitations to the 2027 Players Championship and 2027 PGA Championship
