FedExCup Storylines

VidantaWorld Mexico Open marks the fifth of eight events in the FedExCup Fall, where players look to secure their position inside the top 100 in the standings and become exempt on the PGA Tour for the 2027 season. In addition to the winner receiving a two-year exemption on the PGA Tour and earning their card for the PGA Tour Championship Series in 2028, players will also look to secure access to early-season Signature Events in 2027 through the Aon Next 10. Players ranked No. 51-60 in the standings at the conclusion of the FedExCup Fall will qualify for next season's AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am and The Genesis Invitational.

What's at Stake in the FedExCup Fall:

- Aon Next 10: Players in the Aon Next 10 through the RSM Classic will be eligible for the two west coast Signature Events (AT&T Pebble Beach Pro-Am and The Genesis Invitational)
- The Top 100: Will be fully-exempt for the 2027 PGA Tour season, earn spots in 2027 The Players Championship
- 101-150: Earn conditional status on PGA Tour next season

46.67% In each of the last three seasons 14 of the 30 players to finish inside in Aon Next 10 qualified for the FedExCup Playoffs the following season

26.67% In each of the last three seasons, eight of the 30 players to finish inside in Aon Next 10 finished inside the Top 50 of the FedExCup Standings the following season and six of players qualified for the Tour Championship the following season
