Mason Greene (Tustin, California) carded a 7-under 64 Friday at the Rio Olympic Golf Course to take a two-stroke lead after the second round of the 71st ECP Brazil Open.

Greene earned PGA TOUR Americas membership two weeks ago at Q-School, where he survived a 4-for-3 playoff to earn one of the final spots from the San Jacinto, California, site. The 25-year-old played five seasons at UCLA (2019-24), where he tallied six top-20 finishes in 34 career starts.

After Thursday's play was suspended due to darkness, Andre Chi (Flushing, New York) started Friday with a par on No. 18 to complete a first-round 62, and he followed with a 2-under 69 and sits in an eight-way tie for second at 11-under. Also in a tie for second is Marcus Byrd (Temple Hills, Maryland), who matched Greene for the day's best round with a 7-under 64.

Third-round tee times will run from 7-11:45 a.m. BRT off No. 1 tee.

About PGA TOUR Americas

PGA TOUR Americas identifies and prepares the game's future stars as players compete to earn membership on the Korn Ferry Tour and eventually the PGA TOUR. The 2026 schedule consists of 15 events in nine countries, and the season culminates in October with the PGA Oceans 4 Tour

Championship presented by Scotiabank, where the top 10 players on the season-long points list earn Korn Ferry Tour membership the following season.

Since the inaugural PGA TOUR Americas season in 2024, Johnny Keefer (2024) and Michael Brennan (2025) have finished No. 1 on the PGA TOUR Americas Points List, and both players earned their PGA TOUR cards for the 2026 season.
